INJURED — Pickaway County Deputy Jim Deal conducts his investigation of a one car accident 12:28 p.m. Monday on the Circleville-Lockbourne Rd. Deputy Deal said driver of the car, Debra

M. Alley, 18, Ashville, lost control of the vehicle while trying to make passenger, Roy Alley, II, age 4, Route 1, Ashville, sit in the front seat. The car went off the right side of the road for 134 feet, cut across the pavement for 72 feet and ended 20 feet off the left side in a culvert. Both people in the car suffered minor injuries.

New Troop Cut Announcement Made By Nixon

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — President Nixon announces a new cut in the Vietnam troop ceiling today, perhaps to the often-discussed "residual force" level that presumably would remain there pending a war settlement.

The ceiling will drop to 39,000 on Friday, but the Saigon command has said the number of uniformed Americans now in South Vietnam is less — 37,700.

In advance of Nixon's announcement, there was speculation that his 12th troop cut statement would top some 10,000 to 15,000 from the Sept. 1 ceiling.

Such a move would reach, or come very close to, the level of force of advisers and support personnel. All U.S. ground combat troops were withdrawn weeks ago.

In a CBS television interview earlier this year, Nixon hinted — without getting precise — that he expected the eventual residual force to total 25,000-35,000 uniformed Americans.

U.S. forces in South Vietnam have declined steadily since a peak of 543,400 in April 1969 — three months after Nixon took office.

Although troop withdrawals have continued since Hanoi and the Viet Cong launched a major offensive last February, cutbacks have been more than offset by increases in U.S. forces waging air and naval warfare from Thailand, Guam and the 7th Fleet offshore. The American presence in these sectors has doubled or better to 49,000 in Thailand, 39,000 with the 7th Fleet and 20,000 on Guam.

The Vietnam war will figure in a Nixon journey to Honolulu Wednesday for summit talks with Kakuei Tanaka, Japan's prime minister. Although Nixon and Tanaka are not expected to discuss the subject at any length, the President will meet there Thursday morning with Ellsworth Bunker, the U.S. ambassador flying in from Saigon.

The 1972 campaign will not be entirely forgotten at Hawaii, either.

Nixon is expected to get a campaign-style welcome at Hickam Air Force Base. And before welcoming Tanaka, he will attend a "bipartisan reception" for civic leaders arranged by Clare Boothe Luce, a one-time Republican Congress member and U.S. ambassador to Italy during the Eisenhower administration.

After two formal conferences and a working dinner with Tanaka, Nixon will return to San Clemente Friday night.

Gun Battle Hits Irish Hospital

BELFAST (AP) — The fiercest gun battle in Northern Ireland since the British army seized control of guerrilla strongholds a month ago raged around a Belfast hospital early today.

Patients cowered in terror inside the hospital as gunmen in at least 10 positions fired more than 1,000 bullets in the space of 90 minutes.

The Irish Republican Army, which pledged Monday night to fight on "relentlessly and ruthlessly until victory," definitely suffered two gunmen hit and probably as many as 16 British Army marksmen claimed.

The bullets flew outside hospital buildings occupied by heart patients, expectant mothers and sick children. One woman fainted.

No patients or troops were wounded, but the guerrillas forced the soldiers to abandon one sandbagged position. An armored car removed the eight soldiers because the attack was so intense.

The fighting broke out around the Royal Victoria hospital just before midnight Monday. Some snipers fired from the roof of a nurse's home, an Army spokesman said, while others were concealed in the hospital parking lot.

The hormone is diethylstilbestrol, also called DES or stilbestrol.

In wholly unconnected tests two decades later, three Boston researchers found "a highly significant association" between DES and vaginal cancer among seven young girls whose mothers took the drug during their pregnancies. One girl died.

On Aug. 2, the Food and Drug Administration banned all production of DES for use in animal feeds because it turned up in the tissue of animals slaughtered for food. Researchers had also reported that DES caused cancer in some experimental animals.

Hog Cholera Fight Expands Across Ohio

Total Embargo On Kentucky Swine Issued By State

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio agriculture officials have clamped a total embargo on Kentucky hogs in an effort to stop the spread of hog cholera in the Buckeye state.

Dr. Harry Goldstein, chief of the Agriculture Department Division of Animal Industry, announced the ban Monday. "We are embargoing all hogs" from Kentucky, he said. "We'd be stupid to take in any more until they get the problem settled."

Goldstein's announcement followed confirmation of two cases of the disease in Ohio. In the first case 248 hogs near Greenfield were slaughtered and buried Monday. Another 400 were slated for extermination today in an effort to stop the disease from spreading.

The two confirmed cases, and a third still pending laboratory confirmation, as well as cases in a number of other states bordering Kentucky, stemmed from an interstate shipment of hogs that originated near Horse Cave, Ky.

Goldstein said Kentucky agriculture officials are still trying to trace down the shipment and the origin of the infection. Until this is determined, the Ohio embargo on Kentucky hogs will remain in effect.

The ban initially applied only to feeder hogs, but was expanded Monday to include all swine.

Dr. Charles McCartney, who participated in the experiment, said its purpose was to determine whether DES was really helpful in preventing complications of pregnancy, as was widely believed then. The answer from the experiment was negative, he said.

Ohio's Crime Rate Rises; Aggravated Assaults Dip

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — While slightly below national figures, the Federal Bureau of Investigation reports crime in Ohio during 1971 increased in six categories with only one major drop.

Aggravated assaults dropped from 12,341 to 11,718, a decrease of about 600 and one of the bright spots in the FBI annual statistical summary.

The state's crime rate advanced by 6.5 per cent, from 253.158 to 267.278 last year. Although the increase was less than that registered nationally—at 7 per cent—it fell only a fraction below the five-state North Central region where crime rose by 5.9 per cent.

Overall, crimes of violence—murder, forcible rape, robbery and aggravated assault rose from 30,279 in 1970 to 32,159 last year. Crimes of property—burglary, auto theft and larceny—rose from 222,879 to 235,119 over the same period.

The rate of murders, including nonnegligent manslaughter, in Ohio last year rose to 7.5 per 100,000 persons, up from 6.6 in 1970. The total number of rapes rose from 1,700 to 1,988 and robberies increased from 15,539 to 17,642.

Stray Dogs Get $14 Million From Estate Of Spinster

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — Eighty-one stray dogs have inherited about $14 million from the estate of their late spinster mistress.

The will of Eleanor E. Ritchey, heir to the Quaker State Refining Corp., was finally settled Monday in Broward County Court following years of litigation.

Miss Ritchey, who died Oct. 14, 1968, at the age of 58, left her then $45-million estate to 150 stray dogs.

Humans Ingest Toxic Chemical

Material Found In Tissue Samples

NEW YORK (AP) — Human tissue samples taken in 18 states and the District of Columbia have revealed the presence of an industrial chemical, PCB, according to a government survey reported today.

"These materials are widely found in the population," the report said. "Positive samples came from every hospital, city and state sampled."

The report came from the Division of Pesticide Community Studies of the Environmental Protection Agency and was presented to the annual meeting of the American Chemical Society. The division is in Chamblee, Ga.

The report did not discuss the question of possible harm to humans at the low levels detected and the question of harm has become a matter of controversy. PCB toxicity considerations will be discussed later in the meeting.

In laboratory tests, PCBs reportedly have caused skin ailments and liver and birth defects in animals. PCB is not a pesticide but is similar to DDT which has been almost totally banned in the country.

The initials PCB came from the chemical name polychlorinated biphenyl. It is highly resistant to heat and is designed for use only in "closed systems" so that it would not find its way into the environment.

On a number of occasions, chickens, eggs, turkeys and fish have been found contaminated with unacceptable levels of PCBs.

U.S. Protests Interference In Affairs

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — A U.N. committee on colonialism, pushed on by Communist nations, has decided that Puerto Rico has a right to independence from the United States.

Over U.S. charges of interference in its domestic affairs, the Special Committee on Colonialism voted 12-0 Monday to recognize "the inalienable right of the people of Puerto Rico to self-determination and independence." Ten nations on the 22-member group abstained.

The committee asked a working group to study how to extend to Puerto Rico the provisions of the U.N. Declaration Against Colonialism.

Puerto Ricans filling the visitors' gallery cheered and applauded the outcome. They had more applause for Cuban Ambassador Ricardo Alarcon, who has made a personal campaign out of branding the United States a colonial power occupying the Caribbean island.

"The final stretch in the road of independence has begun," declared Juan Mari Brás, a leader of the Puerto Rican independence movement.

Mari-Brás said the action clearly classified Puerto Rico as a colony. But a U.S. spokesman said (Continued on Page 2)

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. (AP) — A group led by a West Virginia-born associate of Ralph Nader has asked the directors of Continental Oil Co. to turn over dividends from their Continental stock to the widows of the men killed in the Blacksville No. 1 coal mine.

The mine west of here, where nine miners were lost July 22 when fire broke out underground, is owned by Consolidation Coal Co., a subsidiary of Continental.

Letters were sent to the 19 members of Continental's board of directors over the weekend by a citizens group headed by J. Davitt McAteer. McAteer has said the group was formed in May to investigate Consolidation.

1950s Clinical Experiment May Have Boosted Cancer Rate

By BERNARD GAVZER
Associated Press Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — A synthetic female hormone — recently associated with cancer — was given to 840 pregnant women in 1950-52 as part of a clinical experiment of which they were unaware.

The hormone is diethylstilbestrol, also called DES or stilbestrol.

In wholly unconnected tests two decades later, three Boston researchers found "a highly significant association" between DES and vaginal cancer among seven young girls whose mothers took the drug during their pregnancies. One girl died.

On Aug. 2, the Food and Drug Administration banned all production of DES for use in animal feeds because it turned up in the tissue of animals slaughtered for food. Researchers had also reported that DES caused cancer in some experimental animals.

At the time of the Chicago experiment, physicians had no risk. The daughters could have frequent checkups to detect any early symptoms of trouble. Or the followup could help determine whether such use of DES actually does create a cancer risk, the physician said.

The study was conducted at the University of Chicago's Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology among patients at Chicago's Lying-In Hospital from Sept. 28, 1950, through Nov. 20, 1952.

As each woman registered at the hospital's prenatal clinic during that period, she was automatically entered into the experiment.

There were 2,162 in all, but the group was subsequently reduced to 1,646. Of these, 840 were given DES. The others received placebos, or tablets containing no drugs.

Not even clinicians who attended the women knew which tablets had DES because they were concealed in a code.

Describing the experiment at the time, the researchers said it was designed so "that (1) that patients and staff should have no knowledge of the medication on trial; (2) that a similar group of patients should receive placebo medication which is not discernible from the medication on trial; and (3) that the two groups of patients must be treated simultaneously and as nearly alike as possible."

The chief author of the report was the late Dr. William J. Dieckman, chairman of the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology as well as chief of staff of the hospital. He died in 1957.

Dr. McCartney, who participated in the experiment, said Dr. Dieckman urged the study because "thousands of women were taking stilbestrol and a great deal was written about the increased salvage rate in high-risk pregnancies, particularly with patients with diabetes and those with threatened abortions."

Dr. Dieckman was skeptical of the reports and designed

McGovern Revises Welfare Plan

NEW YORK (AP) — Democratic presidential candidate George McGovern was to unveil his second welfare reform plan of the year today in a move designed to increase his support among middle-income Americans and rid him of a campaign embarrassment.

The South Dakota senator, who has been plagued for three months by attacks on his original proposal, planned to disclose the revised version before

New York Society of Security Analysts.

McGovern's new plan was expected to be closer than his first to a proposal by President Nixon that has been passed by the House.

It as expected to differ chiefly from the original plan by taking more from the wealthy and less from the middle income brackets to pay the bill for the proposed new welfare system.

McGovern's first plan came under heavy criticism for its so-called break-even point of $12,000. It would have lowered taxes for those making under that amount but raised them for persons making more than $12,000.

The new plan also was expected to retain McGovern's proposal of a guaranteed annual income of $1,000 per person but with some variations. There has been speculation that the figure would fluctuate some, depending on age and marital status.

McGovern earlier proposed scrapping the present welfare system and personal income tax exemptions and substituting a guaranteed annual income for persons below the poverty line and tax credits for those above.

The program would be financed by closing tax loopholes that benefit industry and the wealthy and by trimming defense spending.

McGovern claimed the new tax laws, which he said would go hand-in-glove with the welfare system revisions, would benefit about 80 per cent of the public—either by cash payments or by tax breaks.

Both McGovern and Nixon have urged guaranteed income plans but they differ on how much the payments should be. Nixon supports a payment of $2,400 for a family of four. McGovern had urged closer to $4,000.

McGovern's original plan first came under heavy political attack from Minnesota Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey when both men were campaigning for California's June 6 Democratic presidential primary. Humphrey charged it was a giveaway and would not pay for itself.

McGovern himself has conceded the original plan wouldn't bring in as much new money as first thought. In June he said he was turning the plan back to his economic advisers for another "run through the computers."

Ohio's Crime Rate Rises; Aggravated Assaults Dip

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — While slightly below national figures, the Federal Bureau of Investigation reports crime in Ohio during 1971 increased in six categories with only one major drop.

Aggravated assaults dropped from 12,341 to 11,718, a decrease of about 600 and one of the bright spots in the FBI annual statistical summary.

The state's crime rate advanced by 6.5 per cent, from 253.158 to 267.278 last year. Although the increase was less than that registered nationally—at 7 per cent—it fell only a fraction below the five-state North Central region where crime rose by 5.9 per cent.

Overall, crimes of violence—murder, forcible rape, robbery and aggravated assault—rose from 30,279 in 1970 to 32,159 last year. Crimes of property—burglary, auto theft and larceny—rose from 222,879 to 235,119 over the same period.

The rate of murders, including non-negligent manslaughter, in Ohio last year rose to 7.5 per 100,000 persons, up from 6.6 in 1970. The total number of rapes rose from 1,700 to 1,988 and robberies increased from 15,539 to 17,642.

The state reported 811 murders in 1971, up from 699 a year before, with the bulk of them occurring in the state's five largest cities — Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati, Toledo and Akron.

Almost 300 out of every 100,000 Buckeyes were the victims of violent crimes last year, although the figure only accounts for one victim per crime. More than 2,000 Ohioans out of every 100,000 were the victims of crimes against property.

By area, the state's large cities weighed in with the bulk of the crime in almost all categories. The FBI report included four rural counties with more than 50,000 population—Ashtabula, Columbiana, Licking and Wayne—but collectively they contributed only about 2,000 crimes to the total.

Columbiana County, in fact, was apparently the safest place in Ohio last year, at least as cited in the FBI report. There were no murders or a negligent manslaughter, no rapes, eight robberies, four assaults, 93 burglaries and 15 stolen cars.

By comparison, life in Cleveland probably was the most dangerous in 1971. The city alone contributed a third of the state's murders, 270.

Cleveland also reported 428 rapes, 5,987 robberies, 2,004 assaults, 11,780 burglaries, more than 16,000 larcenies and thefts, and reported 19,855 stolen cars.

Only Chicago, New York, Los Angeles and Detroit reported more stolen vehicles during 1971 than Cleveland.

REMINDER: Wednesday is opening of school for Logan Elm, Westfall, and Teays Valley... Teays Valley is the only school district operating in the county which will follow its regular schedule...

Logan Elm has added students of the Laurelville area to its district and has rescheduled its class times, also setting bus schedules approximately 15 minutes earlier than last year for Washington, Pickaway and Saltcreek Twp.

Westfall, operating for the first time under an "extended day" program similar to Teays Valley's, will have senior high school students attending class from 7 a.m. until 1 p.m. and junior high (all at the high school building) from 10:51 until 4:31 p.m. Regular school term kindergarten is also incorporated in the Westfall district this year, starting Sept. 5.

Stray Dogs Get $14 Million From Estate Of Spinster

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — Eighty-one stray dogs have inherited about $14 million from the estate of their late spinster mistress.

The will of Eleanor E. Ritchey, heir to the Quaker State Refining Corp., was finally settled Monday in Broward County Court following years of litigation.

Miss Ritchey, who died Oct. 14, 1968, at the age of 58, left her then $4.5-million estate to 150 stray dogs.

Her will was contested by a handful of relatives not mentioned.

Meantime, 69 of the dogs have died but assets of the gross estate, mostly invested in Quaker State stock, have grown to about $18 million. Miss Ritchey was the granddaughter of Philip Bayer, who founded Quaker State.

The dogs that Miss Ritchey had cared for, including everything from mutts to pedigrees, now live in an antiseptic, modern clinic on a 180-acre ranch near Deerfield Beach, Fla. Approximately $17,000 is spent each year on the dogs' food and housing, while another $12,000 per year pays for their weekly medical checkups and treatment of illnesses.

Tattooed to prove their membership in the original 150, the animals are separated by sex so as to prevent propagation. Accidental offspring would be eligible to receive benefits from the estate.

Attorneys were unable to find actuarial tables for dogs, but it was decided the bequest to the animals would stay in effect until the last dog is dead or for a maximum of 20 years.

After all the canine heirs succumb, the estate is to be passed on to the Auburn Research Foundation, at Auburn University in Alabama, for study of diseases of small animals.

Relatives contended Miss Ritchey "lost touch with reality" because of a lawsuit by her neighbors that forced her to move the dogs in 1967 to their present home. The neighbors had complained of excessive barking and yelping.

Norwood GM Strike Still Not Settled

CINCINNATI (AP)—When talks will resume in the strike at the General Motors Assembly Division in nearby Norwood remained uncertain today.

No negotiations were held Monday between striking Local 674 of the United Auto Workers and GM because management was holding "internal meetings."

Postal Boost Not Necessary, Postmaster Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Postal Service says it won't be necessary to boost first class postal rates for the time being because of the attrition of postal service personnel. Postmaster Gen. E. T. (Ted) Klassen Monday said an increase to raise $450 million was considered, with 85 per cent of the additional funds to be used for salaries.

But he said enough employees have quit or retired to make the increase unnecessary.

However, Klassen said it would be "foolhardy" to promise there would not be an increase at all next year. He said negotiations on new labor contracts are scheduled in July, and union leaders have proposed increasing the minimum first class postage rate to 10 cents to raise more revenue.

U.S. Protests Interference In Affairs

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — A U.N. committee on colonialism, pushed on by Communist nations, has decided that Puerto Rico has a right to independence from the United States.

Over U.S. charges of interference in its domestic affairs, the Special Committee on Colonialism voted 12-0 Monday to recognize "the inalienable right of the people of Puerto Rico to self-determination and independence." Ten nations on the 22-member group abstained.

The committee asked a working group to study how to extend to Puerto Rico the provisions of the U.N. Declaration Against Colonialism.

Puerto Ricans filling the visitors' gallery cheered and applauded the outcome. They had more applause for Cuban Ambassador Ricardo Alarcon, who has made a personal campaign out of branding the United States a colonial power occupying the Caribbean island.

"The final stretch in the road of independence has begun," declared Juan Mari-Bras, a leader of the Puerto Rican independence movement.

Mari-Bras said the action clearly classified Puerto Rico as a colony. But a U.S. spokesman said (Continued on Page 2)

Funds Sought In Mine Deaths

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. (AP) — A group led by a West Virginia-born associate of Ralph Nader has asked the directors of Continental Oil Co. to turn over dividends from their Continental stock to the widows of the men killed in the Blacksville No. 1 coal mine.

The mine west of here, where nine miners were lost July 22 when fire broke out underground, is owned by Consolidation Coal Co., a subsidiary of Continental.

Letters were sent to the 19 members of Continental's board of directors over the weekend by a citizens group headed by J. Davitt McAtter. McAtter has said the group was formed in May to investigate Consolidation.

1950s Clinical Experiment May Have Boosted Cancer Rate

By BERNARD GAVZER
Associated Press Writer
CHICAGO (AP) — A synthetic female hormone — recently associated with cancer — was given to 840 pregnant women in 1950-52 as part of a clinical experiment of which they were unaware.

The hormone is diethylstilbestrol, also called DES or stilbestrol.

In wholly unconnected tests two decades later, three Boston researchers found "a highly significant association" between DES and vaginal cancer among seven young girls whose mothers took the drug during their pregnancies. One girl died.

On Aug. 2, the Food and Drug Administration banned all production of DES for use in animal feeds because it turned up in the tissue of animals slaughtered for food. Researchers had also reported that DES caused cancer in some experimental animals.

At the time of the Chicago experiment, physicians had no reason to suspect DES of cancer-causing potential in the patients' children.

Dr. Charles McCartney, who participated in the experiment, said its purpose was to determine whether DES was really helpful in preventing complications of pregnancy, as was widely believed then. The answer from the experiment was negative, he said.

Record-keeping on the women involved now makes it possible to locate many of them, and any daughters who might be at risk. The daughters could have frequent checkups to detect any early symptoms of trouble. Or the followup could help determine whether such use of DES actually does create a cancer risk, the physician said.

The study was conducted at the University of Chicago's Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology among patients at Chicago's Lying-in Hospital from Sept. 28, 1950, through Nov. 20, 1952.

As each woman registered at the hospital's prenatal clinic during that period, she was automatically entered into the experiment.

There were 2,162 in all, but the group was subsequently reduced to 1,616. Of these, 840 were given DES. The others received placebos, or tablets containing no drugs.

Not even clinicians who attended the women knew which tablets had DES because they were concealed in a code.

Describing the experiment at the time, the researchers said it was designed so "(1) that patients and staff should have no knowledge of the medication on trial; (2) that a similar group of patients should receive placebo medication which is not discernible from the medication on trial; and (3) that the two groups of patients must be treated simultaneously and as nearly alike as possible."

The chief author of the report was the late Dr. William J. Dieckman, chairman of the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology as well as chief of staff of the hospital. He died in 1957.

Dr. McCartney, who participated in the experiment, said Dr. Dieckman urged the study because "thousands of women were taking stilbestrol and a great deal was written about the increased salvage rate in high-risk pregnancies, particularly with patients with diabetes and those with threatened abortions."

Cincy Symphony Includes Overture From 'Tecumseh!'

Theme music from the outdoor drama, "Tecumseh!" will be among the selections played by the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra when it presents a concert Sept. 9 on Sugarloaf Mountain.

The concert will be just a part of the activities scheduled on the amphitheatre site to celebrate the dedication of 1,600 seat outdoor theatre, where "Tecumseh!" will premier next spring.

The "Tecumseh!" overture, "Reflections of an Indian Boy" is a tone poem composed by Carl Fischer prior to his death in 1954. The symphony will also perform "Maiden's Prayer" and "Walk of the Proud Braves" from the historical drama.

Fischer, a Cherokee Indian, was piano accompanist for singer Frankie Lane. Special arrangements were made with Lane to have the music incorporated into the outdoor drama promoted by the Scioto Society.

Starting time for the day's events is at 12:30 p.m., on the Saturday following Labor Day. First on the entertainment agenda is music by area high school bands, including Unioto, Chillicothe, Zane Trace, Paint Valley, Waverly.

The Chillicothe Jaycees, Scioto Society members, with the assistance of an expert from Ohio State University, will conduct an ox roast from 3:30 to 5:30 at the amphitheatre area.

Dinner will be limited to the first 1,000 persons to buy tickets, since it would be extremely difficult to feed everyone who will be up there.

The Jaycees will purchase about 500 pounds of meat for the ox roast.

While the ox roast is underway, an informal music program by folk singers and instrumental groups will be presented. From Pickaway at least one folk singing group is expected to participate.

A choral program will be presented by the Quinn Chapel Choir of Chillicothe, directed by Rev. William Ricks, at 6:30.

At 7:30, the dedication program begins. Among the dignitaries attending will be Arthur Roullette (Lay-Qua-Bear-Shuk), tribal chairman of the Shawnee nation in Oklahoma, and his wife Pearl. Author of the drama, Allan Eckert, will also make an appearance.

Erich Kunzel will direct the Cincinnati Symphony orchestra in a "symphony under the stars" beginning at 8.

Ten concert will begin with more classical melodies then gradually turn to more popular styles in what is termed "pop" concert style. It is to end at 10 p.m.

According to W. L. Mundell, Scioto Society executive vice president, the amphitheatre will be open to the public until shortly before the dedication service begins at 7:30. Tour guides will be on hand to explain the layout and functions of the drama complex, he said.

In addition to the tours and continuous musical entertainment during the afternoon, artifact displays will be exhibited by various historical groups.

Pickaway County's Historical Society has undertaken setting up a pioneer kitchen display, showing some of the primitive type cooking utensils used by early pioneer women.

Most of the exhibits will be from the era when Tecumseh, the Shawnee war chieftan, roamed the Northwest Territory, but some will also be from earlier archaeological periods.

Tickets for the Cincinnati Symphony performance and for the ox roast are on sale at Yates Buick, S. Court St.; Kochheiser Hardware, W. Main St. and the Third National Bank, E. Main.

GM Plans Wankel Engine Use 'In About 2 Years'

DETROIT (AP) — Vega drivers may get a whisper quiet ride when General Motors Corp. introduces the Wankel rotary engine, presumably in the small car's 1974 models.

The world's largest automaker announced Monday that the Wankel may be offered as an option in the Vega line "in about two years."

What's a Wankel?
It is a radical modification of the internal combustion engine. The inventor, Felix Wankel, describes it as a rotating piston. Triangular rotors revolving in an elliptical chamber provide the power instead of a piston, which goes up and down.

Its light weight will save about 300 pounds in a typical U.S. car. And, besides being whisper quiet, it runs happily on very low octane gas.

The announcement by GM is significant because it means that millions may be spent to produce new tools to make the engine; cars may be smaller because the Wankel is about two-thirds the size of a comparative horsepower internal combustion engine, and with fewer moving parts it could provide savings in upkeep and repair.

Since the rotary engine is smaller there will be more room under the hood for bulky emission control devices.

Last November, General Motors agreed to pay $50 million to NSU (a Volkswagen subsidiary) for the right to study the engine and manufacture it.

While the Germans had been tinkering with the engine, a small Japanese automaker, Toyo Kogyo (Mazda in the U.S.) improved on the German NSU design.

About 100,000 of Mazda's Wankel-powered cars have been produced.

Cincy Symphony Includes Overture From 'Tecumseh!'

Theme music from the outdoor drama, "Tecumseh!" will be among the selections played by the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra when it presents a concert Sept. 9 on Sugarloaf Mountain.

The concert will be just a part of the activities scheduled on the amphitheatre site to celebrate the dedication of 1,600 seat outdoor theatre, where "Tecumseh!" will premier next spring.

The "Tecumseh!" overture, "Reflections of an Indian Boy" is a tone poem composed by Carl Fischer prior to his death in 1954. The symphony will also perform "Maiden's Prayer" and "Walk of the Proud Braves" from the historical drama.

Fischer, a Cherokee Indian, was piano accompanist for singer Frankie Lane. Special arrangements were made with Lane to have the music incorporated into the outdoor drama promoted by the Scioto Society.

Starting time for the day's events is at 12:30 p.m., on the Saturday following Labor Day. First on the entertainment agenda is music by area high school bands, including Unioto, Chillicothe, Zane Trace, Paint Valley, Waverly.

The Chillicothe Jaycees, Scioto Society members, with the assistance of an expert from Ohio State University, will conduct an ox roast from 3:30 to 5:30 at the amphitheatre area.

Dinner will be limited to the first 1,000 persons to buy tickets, since it would be extremely difficult to feed everyone who will be up there.

The Jaycees will purchase about 500 pounds of meat for the ox roast.

While the ox roast is underway, an informal music program by folk singers and instrumental groups will be presented. From Pickaway at least one folk singing group is expected to participate.

A choral program will be presented by the Quinn Chapel Choir of Chillicothe, directed by Rev. William Ricks, at 6:30.

At 7:30, the dedication program begins. Among the dignitaries attending will be Arthur Roullette (Lay-Qua-Bea-Shuk), tribal chairman of the Shawnee nation in Oklahoma, and his wife Pearl. Author of the drama, Allan Eckert, will also make an appearance.

Erich Kunzel will direct the Cincinnati Symphony orchestra in a "symphony under the stars" beginning at 8.

Ten concert will begin with more classical melodies then gradually turn to more popular styles in what is termed "pop" concert style. It is to end at 10 p.m.

According to W. L. Mundell, Scioto Society executive vice president, the amphitheatre will be open to the public until shortly before the dedication service begins at 7:30. Tour guides will be on hand to explain the layout and functions of the drama complex, he said.

In addition to the tours and continuous musical entertainment during the afternoon, artifact displays will be exhibited by various historical groups.

Pickaway County's Historical Society has undertaken setting up a pioneer kitchen display, showing some of the primitive type cooking utensils used by early pioneer women.

Most of the exhibits will be from the era when Tecumseh, the Shawnee war chieftan, roamed the Northwest Territory, but some will also be from earlier archaeological periods.

Tickets for the Cincinnati Symphony performance and for the ox roast are on sale at Yates Buick, S. Court St.; Kochheiser Hardware, W. Main St. and the Third National Bank, E. Main.

Madison Police Recover Car

Madison Twp. police recovered a stolen Pickaway County car Sunday and discovered that its driver was a West Virginia penitentiary escapee.

Arthur Becker, Route 2, Ashville, told Pickaway County Sheriff's deputies that a man took his car from his E. Ringgold-Northern Road home Sunday morning.

Deputies reported that the Madison Twp. police, investigating a property damage accident in their county, discovered that the car involved was Becker's.

Driver of the car, David Turner, 31, was arrested as an escapee from Spencer State Hospital, W. Va.

ALLAN ECKERT — Author of the historical drama depicting the life of Shawnee Chieftan Tecumseh and the Scioto River Valley from the era of the Revolutionary War through the War of 1812. Legend has it that Tecumseh's grave is located in the southern part of Pickaway County, but surviving members of the Shawnee Nation, now living in Oklahoma, refuse to confirm or deny this story. Eckert and the reigning chairman of the Shawnee Nation, Author Roullette, will be two of the dignitaries on hand Sept. 9 for the dedication and public showing of the amphitheatre. Tickets are available here at three locations.

an experiment to test the hypothesis. Our question was, "Does it (DES) do any good?" Our answer was, "No."

Dr. McCartney said the experiment was conducted in an era in which there was "no such thing as informed consent."

"At the time of the experiment, there was nothing known about the malignancy potential of this material," he said. "Indeed, this still has to be determined."

The job of tracking down the women involved in the experiment and their children has fallen to Dr. Frederick P. Zuppan, chairman of the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology and chief of staff at Chicago Lying-in. Zuppan did not take part in the experiment.

Officials at Chicago Lying-in declined to answer questions about the experiment and directed all inquiries to Zuppan.

"I can answer no questions regarding the study or plans for a follow-up," Zuppan said.

However, a follow-up is in the works. A Chicago mother who was involved in the experiment said:

"I first learned of it when I received a letter from the university dated Aug. 8, 1972. I had never been told I was part of an experiment."

She does not know whether she received DES or the blank tablets.

Her daughter, who will be 21 in October, has had only one serious illness and that resulted from a ruptured appendix.

It was learned 1,600 letters had been sent over Zuppan's signature. The letter says:

"Dr. William Dieckmann and others conducted a study on the use of diethylstilbestrol (the estrogen female hormone) during pregnancy. This study was conducted while you were a patient in the Outpatient Department of Chicago Lying-in Hospital. Our records indicate that you participated in this important study."

"We are now routinely following up all offspring of participants. It would be greatly appreciated if you would give us your daughter's present address so that we may contact her..."

Hog Cholera

backed by an executive order from Gov. John Gilligan who announced Monday that all hog trucks at the Ohio-Kentucky border were being halted.

A release from Gilligan's office also stated that all hog trucks entering the state must have state health department certificates and be able to present them on request, either at the state line or during spot checks throughout Ohio.

The diseased animals slated for depopulation today were in Van Wert County near rural Wren.

Farmers are being reimbursed by the federal government for any loss they sustain, since the disease stemmed from an interstate shipment.

Because the disease is so highly contagious, only the veterinarians and necessary workers were permitted on the scene of the depopulation, which is carried out by injecting a fatal drug into each animal.

Although humans are not subject to the contagion, Goldstein said the disease can be carried on clothing or on the soles of shoes.

Free Ride Costs Local Man Money
A free ride home proved expensive to a Circleville man when his three benefactors relieved him of a $13 check and $15 in cash.

Leonard E. Hunt, 501 E. Franklin St., told police three men, who were unknown to him, offered him a ride home 3:45 a.m. today.

He said the men took the check and money from his wallet when they arrived at his residence.

Mike O'Conner, 311 E. Union St., notified police some one had stolen a lawn mower from his garage Saturday night or Sunday morning.

The Day The U.S. Votes

Voters of the U.S. will cast ballots for 45 representatives and 33 senators the first Tuesday after the first Monday of November. The national election, however, did not always fall on that day.

Until 1872 each state fixed its own day for voting for Congress. Often it was not the same as presidential election day, set in 1845.

Between those dates, the "October states" — Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana — voted early for their representatives. Their elections were watched as important straws in the wind.

Senatorial elections did not exist until the 17th Amendment became effective in 1913. Previously, senators were elected by the state legislatures.

Why does election day fall in November? "Harvesting is over then, and winter has not yet made the roads impassable," said Alexander Duncan, Whig representative from Ohio, who wrote the presidential election-day law in 1845.

By a previous law, the date for presidential elections had to be set not more than 34 days before the first Wednesday in December, when the electoral college met — and still meets — every four years. Congress, however, hoped to make it at least 30 days ahead.

It couldn't be the first of November, for businessmen make out accounts on the first. It couldn't fall on Sunday, for unlike Europeans, Americans feel the Sabbath is no day for voting. Monday would leave too little time for traveling to the polls.

Thus the present election day was chosen. It never falls on the first nor later than Nov. 8. By giving America a national polling day, it eliminated such scandals as "pipe-laying," the practice of sending political gangs across state lines to vote more than once on different election days.

Voting as a citizen's privilege goes back to the ancient Greek city-states. On serious matters such as the exile of a citizen, the Greeks cast pebbles or bits of pottery into urns — the first secret ballots — 2,400 years ago.

Camping In Style

Sociologists someday will have a great time analyzing the grand old sport of camping — as it is practiced by Americans in the 1970s. Any resemblance to camping of yesterday is purely coincidental, not to mention unintentional.

Among those 40 million Americans who take to the great outdoors there are some who call a pup tent home, cook over a wood fire and consider a sleeping bag the ultimate in luxury. Early in the morning they will roll up their possessions in a back pack and tramp through the woods in search of serenity and isolation.

They are regarded as some kind of prehistorics by four out of five of their fellow campers. The great majority do not leave their comfortable homes to rough it. What they want is a change of scenery, but with all the comforts of home which can be put on wheels.

The travel trailer industry, in its many forms, is one of the fastest growing businesses in the United States. From camping units mounted on pickup trucks to elaborate bus-like mobile homes, the array and self-sufficiency of camping units to be found in almost any campground will astound the novice.

Camping has become a socializing experience in which for a brief time an environment can be changed, a new routine adopted and new acquaintances made. For many, that is enough of a change without going through the rigors of camping for the sake of camping.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) See what you can do to make those who live with you much happier and stop being so concerned with own affairs. Do whatever will make everything at home run more efficiently. Avoid one who bickers too much.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) The one who means the most to you can be very helpful in making your daily existence happier and more pleasurable now. You have wise ways for putting across your ideas now. Keep active and all is fine.

TODAY . . . he or she will be one of those clever young people who will realize early that a safe investment that draws a fair interest is good for a long period of time, so slant the education along lines of banking, finances, business and the like for excellent results throughout the lifetime. Early training in ethics and morality is fine so your youngster will not be tempted to go the wrong way. A very affectionate mate in this chart, and one who loves children.

Speaking of YOUR HEALTH...

My husband, at the early age of 39, had a severe coronary heart attack. The doctors say he has completely recovered, but he is a totally different person. Whereas he was formerly an active, energetic man, now he is afraid to make one unnecessary move.

It's six years since his attack, and I know that if he doesn't snap out of it he'll be an invalid all his life.

What can we do to help him? Mrs. C.U., Ill.

A heart attack at any age is charged with emotional overtones. A relatively young energetic person is often overwhelmed by such a massive blow to his body image.

Frequently, it takes a far longer time to recover from the psychic damage than it does from the physical damage to the heart itself.

Obviously, your husband has been in a state of fear about the possibility that another attack will come on with exertion or emotional stress.

It has always been my belief that psychological and emotional support by experts should begin immediately following the very acute period of a heart attack. Only in this way, can a person recover his psychological balance as well as his cardiac, or heart, reserve.

Six years is a long period of time for your husband to have narrowed his world of activity and virtually cut himself off from a productive life.

I am sure that his doctor has constantly reassured him that his electrocardiograms are normal and that his heart is once again in excellent condition. His doctor undoubtedly told him to resume activity, and even well-regulated exercise.

Why, then, is your husband a captured invalid, incapacitated by anxiety, and unable to function as he once did?

He is suffering from a disease of fear, and fear is a disease which does not yield to heart drugs, antibiotics, and blood-thinning mechanism drugs.

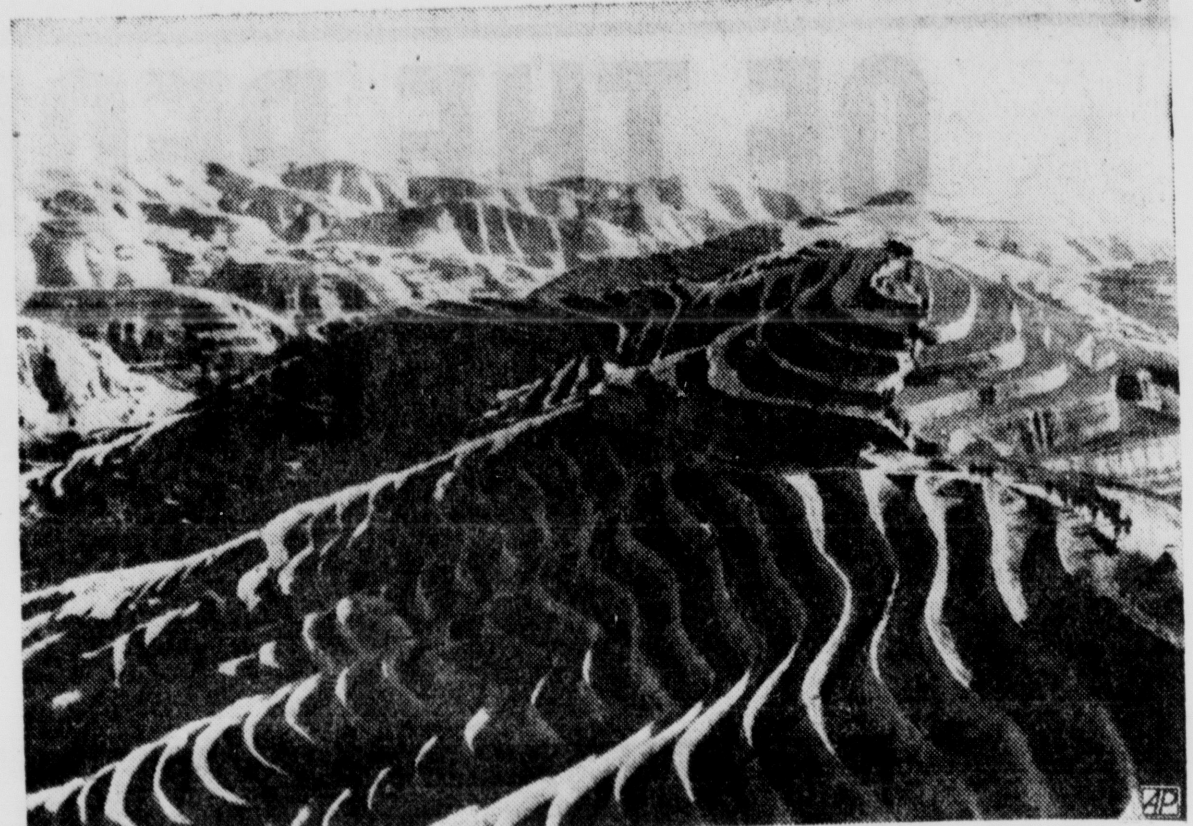

Fear must be conquered by a combination of his own inner reserve, his family support, and psychological guidance. He can yet be rescued from the isolated world of physical and emotional insecurity.

My wife belongs to a religion that forbids coffee, tea, cocoa, and alcoholic drinks.

I enjoy one cup of tea a day, and have done so for 75 years. (I am 85 now). I promised her I would stop if you agree with her.

Dear Mr. W.: My advice? Don't stop drinking your tea until you're 102!

Mr. B.W. Calif.

The Juggernaut

By JEFFERY HART

MIAMI BEACH — A few years ago a powerful Yale football team was running up a big score against Harvard. Late in the fourth quarter, when Yale's fourth string scored the last of many touchdowns, the Yale team manager, a 140-pounder who had suited up, inconspicuously joined the team on the field. Then the Yale quarterback threw the ball to the manager for the twopoint conversion. The play lives in infamy as far as Harvard is concerned, but it was a measure of Yale's confidence.

In comparison with the Republicans running the Miami Beach phase of the campaign from the Doral Hotel here, the Yalies were uptight. Ritualistically, the Nixon men are warning against overconfidence. The fact is, however, that the Republican tacticians are deliberately using confidence as a weapon against George McGovern. The idea is to create the impression that Nixon is inevitable, that a McGovern Presidency is unthinkable.

Admittedly, that impression is not hard to foster when the latest poll shows Nixon leading by 39 points in Texas, 30, in Connecticut and New Jersey, 32, in Michigan, 33 in Illinois, an incredible 39 in Texas, and 17 even in New York.

A good deal of art is going into this approach too. Characteristic of the tone being taken near the top was Vice President Agnew's rejoinder to Sargent Shriver's muffled-peace chance play. Shriver, said Agnew dismissively, was very inexperienced. But below the two nominees, assorted Republican spokesmen will continue to lambaste Sen. McGovern's positions and statements with mingled scorn and incredulity.

Unless this strategy somehow runs into serious trouble, it is unthinkable that Richard Nixon would debate McGovern or even respond to McGovern's sallies. Indeed, the tacticians at the Doral calculate that President Nixon's very refusal to be provoked by McGovern will draw McGovern ever more deeply into the rhetorical depths, thus confirming the general impression of his incapacity.

Already McGovern has shown signs of being sucked into this trap: he has three times compared Nixon with Adolf Hitler, thus picking up the theme of the extremists who spell it "Amerika." Indeed, each day seems to bring another incredible McGovern gaffe. Over the weekend, with the recent mass executions in Binh Dinh Province in everyone's mind, McGovern allowed that a Communist takeover in South Vietnam would be the immediate result of his election. But it wouldn't be so bad, he explained. When the Communists take over a village, what they do is build a school, set up a hospital, and so on.

All of this kind of thing is recorded in a voluminous McGovern quotations from the past couple of years: his comparison of Ho Chi Minh to George Washington, his 1971 advocacy of providing military aid to Third-World revolutionaries, his June, 1972 advocacy of total troop withdrawal from Europe, and on and on.

The Nixon tacticians do not think that either the Vietnam bombing or the Watergate bugging will be much of an issue.

At worst, they say, some Republican underlings will be found to have been involved in the Watergate affair. No one will take seriously the notion that this caper represents an Orwellian impulse on Nixon's part. It will be seen, at worst, as a minor caper.

Now that American ground troops are almost out of Vietnam, they think the war is no longer much of a voting issue. The public is beginning to perceive that North Vietnam is the real obstacle to a settlement, both Peking and Moscow having gone along with Nixon. And in that context, out across the country, no one is losing much sleep over the bombing of the North.

And so, at least as seen from Nixon headquarters at the Doral Hotel, the campaign rolls smoothly toward November.

AMVETS Back Nixon On Amnesty

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The American Veterans of World War II, Korea and Vietnam (AMVETS) have backed President Nixon in his refusal to grant amnesty to anyone fleeing the country to avoid military service.

The resolution passed as the group's 28th annual convention ended here Sunday.

The AMVETS also urged Congress to push for higher personal income tax exemptions, saying that "the burden of federal income taxes is on the masses of people and is a basic cause of the poverty and unrest in the United States."

The delegates called for an increase from $750 to $1,500 for each taxpayer and his or her dependents.

In other action, delegates elected Joseph R. Samson of Detroit commander of the 250,000-member organization. Thomas McDonough of Chicago and Earl El Heath of Indiana were elected national vice commanders.

Other officers included John Towey of Lynn, Mass., finance officer, and Harold LeRoy of Chicago, provost marshal. Julius R. Pollatschek of Union, N. J., was re-elected judge advocate.

Mrs. Doris Burdine of Atlanta, Ga., was named president of the AMVET auxiliary.

The Business World

By JOHN CUNIFF

NEW YORK (AP) — If you are on the road Labor Day weekend, you might obtain the impression that some Americans are not content to have a mere second home but that they must have one that moves.

That impression precisely describes the feelings of recreation vehicle owners. There are about four million RVs on the road. More than half a million join the ranks each year. They are growing in size also. And they are being used year-round.

This life style is catching on so suddenly that some of the business community can't seem to understand it.

In Wall Street, for example, analysts who otherwise are adept at making distinctions continue to confuse recreational vehicles with mobile homes when, in fact, the two industries are quite distinct.

Mobile homes are rarely seen on the road. They do have wheels and they can be towed, but generally their mobility is restricted to a trip from the dealer to a permanent site, where they are attached to a foundation.

Broadly speaking, that leaves most of the other housing accommodations being towed or driven or hauled along the turnpikes in the RV category, which means they are generally travel trailers, camper trailers, truck campers, pickup covers or motor homes.

Even the big automotive manufacturers, which stand to be among the biggest gainers from the boom, were surprised a year or so ago when they noticed a sudden rise in demand for pickup trucks to haul trailers and hold camper bodies.

In 1970, General Motors sold 560,000 pickup trucks. In 1971 the figure rose to 680,000 units and then soared to 540,000 in only the first six months of 1972. Catching on, some automotive dealers now sell RVs as well.

"A lot of these people don't miss a thing in their rolling homes," says one manufacturer. "They have their TV sets, air-conditioning, modern appliances and other conveniences."

The industry has compiled statistics showing that the average RV family — 4.1 persons, headed by a white-collar worker, 45, making $12,000 plus — spends 10 per cent of its time in its vehicle.

Production is soaring to accommodate buyers. Fewer than 100,000 units were shipped in 1961, but the total this year will be more than 600,000, and dollar volume might reach $2 billion.

The dollar figure is actually growing faster than the unit increase as buyers move up from the small, hut-like camping trailers to huge, bus-like motor homes and to the latest rage, "fifth-wheel" travel trailers.

That fifth-wheel designation seems to be a misnomer, but the label sticks. The wheel really is the coupling device that clamps the trailer's front over the rear of a pickup truck.

Prices at the beginning of the year ranged from an average of $328 for the very basic pickup cover, which is only an enclosure for the rear of a pickup truck, to $10,000 for the motor home, in which the driver sits in the living room.

Rentals ranged from about $90 a trailer for a 16-foot camping trailer, which folds into a compact unit for towing but opens like a jack-in-the-box for usage, to $225 a week and 10 cents a mile for a 22-foot motor home.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) See what you can do to make those who live with you much happier and stop being so concerned with own affairs. Do whatever will make everything at home run more efficiently. Avoid one who bickers too much.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) The one who means the most to you can be very helpful in making your daily existence happier and more pleasurable now. You have wise ways for putting across your ideas now. Keep active and all is fine.

TODAY . . . he or she will be one of those clever young people who will realize early that a safe investment that draws a fair interest is good for a long period of time, so slant the education along lines of banking, finances, business and the like for excellent results throughout the lifetime. Early training in ethics and morality is fine so your youngster will not be tempted to go the wrong way. A very affectionate mate in this chart, and one who loves children.

Speaking of YOUR HEALTH...

by LESTER L. COLEMAN, M.D.

My husband, at the early age of 39, had a severe coronary heart attack.

The doctors say he has completely recovered, but he is a totally different person. Whereas he was formerly an active, energetic man, now he is afraid to make one unnecessary move.

It's six years since his attack, and I know that if he doesn't snap out of it he'll be an invalid all his life.

What can we do to help him?

Dear Mrs. U.:
A heart attack at any age is charged with emotional overtones. A relatively young energetic person is often overwhelmed by such a massive blow to his body image.

Frequently, it takes a far longer time to recover from the psychic damage than it does from the physical damage to the heart itself.

Obviously, your husband has been in a state of fear about the possibility that another attack will come on with exertion or emotional stress.

It has always been my belief that psychological and emotional support by experts should begin immediately following the very acute period of a heart attack. Only in this way, can a person recover his psychological balance as well as his cardiac, or heart, reserve.

Six years is a long period of time for your husband to have narrowed his world of activity and virtually cut himself off from a productive life.

I am sure that his doctor has constantly reassured him that his electrocardiograms are normal and that his heart is once again in excellent condition. His doctor undoubtedly told him to resume activity, and even well-regulated exercise.

Why, then, is your husband a captured invalid, incapacitated by anxiety, and unable to function as he once did?

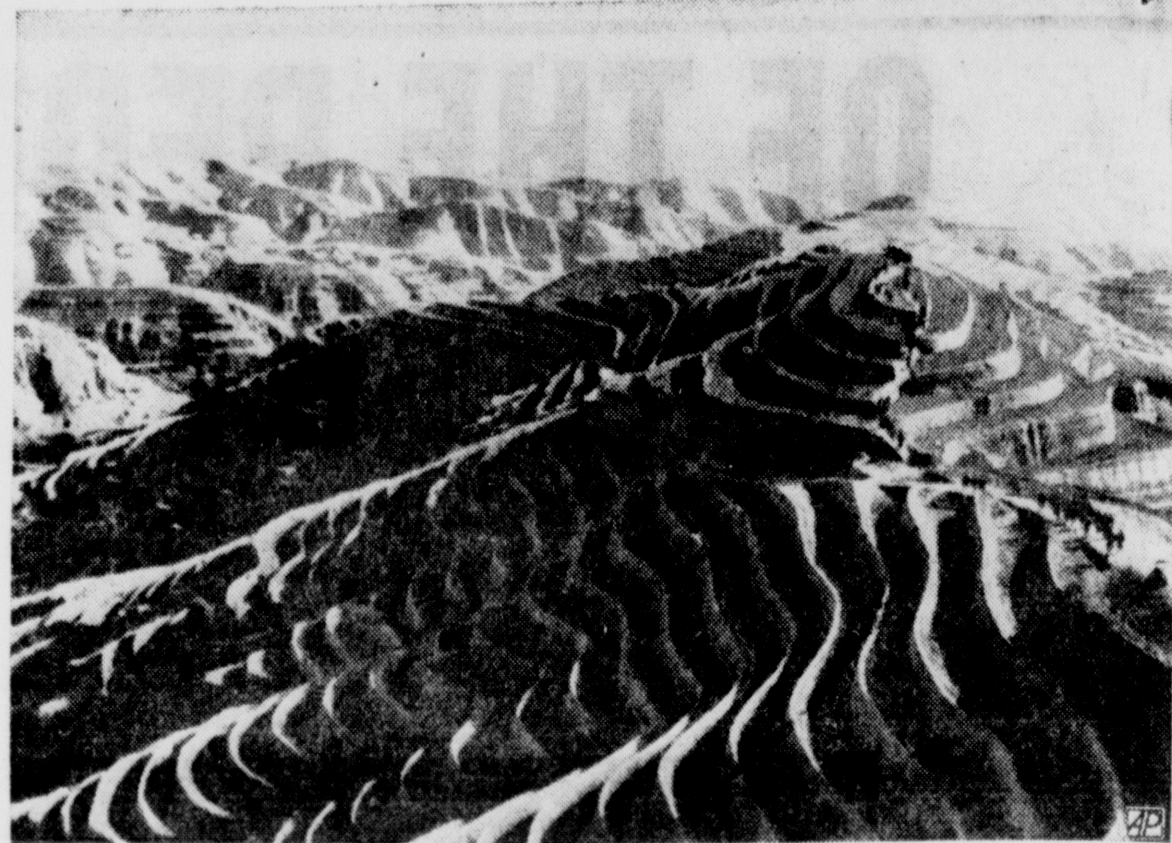

He is suffering from a disease of fear. And fear is a disease which does not yield to heart drugs, antibiotics, and blood-thinning mechanism drugs.

Fear must be conquered by a combination of his own inner reserve, his family support, and psychological guidance. He can yet be rescued from the isolated world of physical and emotional insecurity.

My wife belongs to a religion that forbids coffee, tea, cocoa, and alcoholic drinks. I enjoy one cup of tea a day, and have done so for 75 years. (I am 85 now). I promised her I would stop if you agree with her.

Mr. B. W. Calif.

Dear Mr. W.:
My advice? Don't stop drinking your tea until you're 102!

The Juggernaut

By JEFFERY HART

MIAMI BEACH — A few years ago a powerful Yale football team was running up a big score against Harvard. Late in the fourth quarter, when Yale's fourth string scored the last of many touchdowns, the Yale team manager, a 140-pounder who had suited up, inconspicuously joined the team on the field. Then the Yale quarterback threw the ball to the manager for the two-point conversion. The play lives in infamy as far as Harvard is concerned, but it was a measure of Yale's confidence.

In comparison with the Republicans running the Miami Beach phase of the campaign from the Doral Hotel here, the Yalies were uplight.

Ritualistically, the Nixon men are warning against overconfidence. The fact is, however, that the Republican tacticians are deliberately using confidence as a weapon against George McGovern. The idea is to create the impression that Nixon is inevitable, that a McGovern Presidency is unthinkable.

Admittedly, that impression is not hard to foster when the latest poll shows Nixon leading by 39 points in Texas, 30, in Connecticut and New Jersey, 32, in Michigan, 33 in Illinois, an incredible 39 in Texas, and 17 even in New York.

A good deal of art is going into this approach too. Characteristic of the tone being taken near the top was Vice President Agnew's rejoinder to Sargent Shriver's muffled-peace chance play. Shriver, said Agnew dismissively, was very inexperienced. But below the two nominees, assorted Republican spokesmen will continue to lambaste Sen. McGovern's positions and statements with mingled scorn and incredulity.

Unless this strategy somehow runs into serious trouble, it is unthinkable that Richard Nixon would debate McGovern or even respond to McGovern's sallies.

Indeed, the tacticians at the Doral calculate that President Nixon's very refusal to be provoked by McGovern will draw McGovern ever more deeply into the rhetorical depths, thus confirming the general impression of his incapacity.

Already McGovern has shown signs of being sucked into this trap: he has three times compared Nixon with Adolf Hitler, thus picking up the theme of the extremists who spell it "Amerika." Indeed, each day seems to bring another incredible McGovern gaffe. Over the weekend, with the recent mass executions in Binh Dinh Province in everyone's mind, McGovern allowed that a Communist takeover in South Vietnam would be the immediate result of his election. But it wouldn't be so bad, he explained. When the Communists take over a village, what they do is build a school, set up a hospital, and so on.

All of this kind of thing is recorded in a voluminous "Assault Book" which contains McGovern quotations from the past couple of years: his comparison of Ho Chi Minh to George Washington, his 1971 advocacy of providing military aid to Third-World revolutionaries, his June, 1972 advocacy of total troop withdrawal from Europe, and on and on.

The Nixon tacticians do not think that either the Vietnam bombing or the Watergate bugging will be much of an issue.

At worst, they say, some Republican underlings will be found to have been involved in the Watergate affair. No one will take seriously the notion that this caper represents an Orwellian impulse on Nixon's part. It will be seen, at worst, as a minor caper.

Now that American ground troops are almost out of Vietnam, they think the war is no longer much of a voting issue.

The public is beginning to perceive that North Vietnam is the real obstacle to a settlement, both Peking and Moscow having gone along with Nixon. And in that context, out across the country, no one is losing much sleep over the bombing of the North.

And so, at least as seen from Nixon headquarters at the Doral Hotel, the campaign rolls smoothly toward November.

AMVETS Back Nixon On Amnesty

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The American Veterans of World War II, Korea and Vietnam (AMVETS) have backed President Nixon in his refusal to grant amnesty to anyone fleeing the country to avoid military service.

The resolution passed as the group's 28th annual convention ended here Sunday.

The AMVETS also urged Congress to push for higher personal income tax exemptions, saying that "the burden of federal income taxes is on the masses of people and is a basic cause of the poverty and unrest in the United States."

The delegates called for an increase from $750 to $1,500 for each taxpayer and his or her dependents.

In other action, delegates elected Joseph R. Samson of Detroit commander of the 230,000-member organization. Thomas McDonough of Chicago and Earl El Heath of Indiana were elected national vice commanders.

Other officers included John Towey of Lynn, Mass., finance officer, and Harold LeRoy of Chicago, provost marshal. Julius R. Pollatschek of Union, N. J., was re-elected judge advocate.

Mrs. Doris Burdine of Atlanta, Ga., was named president of the AMVET auxiliary.

FHA Housing Across Ohio Investigated By Nader Group

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—What's wrong with Federal Housing Administration programs in Ohio and what might be done about them are the subject of an upcoming report by the Ohio Public Interest Action Group.

The OPIAG, formed last year under the guidance of consumer crusader Ralph Nader, will issue the report in the fall. It will contain results from a three-month study by two Ohio law students who spent the summer working for the group.

Under special scrutiny in the study was the FHA's "235 subsidized housing program" in which the administration helps meet the cost of home mortgage payments.

"I think we've identified problems in the inspection and appraisal areas," Martin Baach, a University of Cincinnati law student, said. "We've raised some questions about procedure."

He and co-worker Phil McClelland, a Case Western Reserve University student, are reluctant to preview their forthcoming report, saying, "It's too tempting to answer in a facile way. The answers are really much more complex."

Although the study did not include every FHA assistance program in Ohio, it covered problems throughout the state, ranging from Cleveland to Cincinnati, Baach said.

Some of the report recommendations are directed at the FHA, while others are aimed at local community officials and private citizens.

"For a long time the FHA had no responsibility under the law" for inspecting construction sites or practices, Baach said. "But the orientation is different now."

"I'm sure you've seen these statements by Secretary (of Housing and Urban Development) George Romney. It's a consumer oriented approach they're professing now." Shoddy workmanship, despite FHA inspection, was a complaint found by the two investigators in many places.

Examples included a Columbus home in which the ceiling and the kitchen floor have collapsed and the plumbing leaks, and a project in Delhi Township west of Cincinnati of new homes perched 35 feet from a steep, unfenced slope.

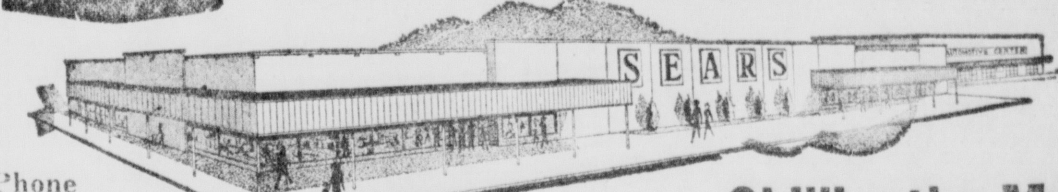

In the Delhi project, the OPIAG found, water pipes in several homes froze last winter and sparks flew from an electric outlet because of the use of less expensive aluminum wiring instead of copper.

Officials of North Madison, near Cleveland, tried to get action from the Cleveland area

FHA office when many residents complained of shoddy construction in 235 homes, the FHA response "buck-passing."

By TOM SIEBERT
Associated Press Writer

ASPEN, Colo. (AP) — People have been going around this mountain resort town asking some pretty strange questions lately. What is Old Billy's secret? Is young Dr. Malone going to marry Felicia? Will Lance and Eleanor get the money?

Sound like a soap opera? It is, produced in all its sudsy glory on a shoestring by the community television station's Grass-Roots Network.

Called The Edge of Ajax after an 11,212-foot ski peak that borders the town on one side, the unceremonious melodrama lasted eight episodes this summer. By then its all-volunteer cast and crew was exhausted from the 40-hour plus weeks spent taping each 15-minute segment.

City Councilman Ross Griffin, who had acting experience in college and has appeared in some local musicals, was drafted to suffer as Mark Malone, a fast-rising medical man and chief suitor of the heroine.

Housewife Maura Eggan played Felicia Wheeler, named after the town's Wheeler Opera House. In the plot she was raised from infancy by the town jailer after a miner found her abandoned on a dogsled high on a snowy mountain pass. In her 30s she returns to Aspen, struggling to unravel the mystery shrouding her origins.

Mrs. Eggan's house became a popular set for the series, increasing so when it was discovered her refrigerator was open to raiding between takes.

Super private eye Snoop Jackson, ferreting out the crooks from his not-so-private office — a bench and pay phone outside City Hall — was in reality architect Robin Molney, the head of Aspen's Planning and Zoning Commission.

And head waiter Phil Clark, a carpenter and bartender by occupation, doubled as Old Billy. A rapscallion who drank his beer on camera, he connived with secret son Lance and shady friend Eleanor to get Felicia's shares in the old Sun and Rain, Dogsled and Mining Co. Now worth billions, they had been bought for her by Old Billy and the other miners when she was a waif.

Coming up with the characters said Clark, was half the fun.

"A whole bunch of us got together one night and screamed and yelled and hooted till we came up with a list."

"We never really knew what would happen to the plot. About 10 days ahead of the episodes the writers got together to decide what to do."

The Edge of Ajax was the brainchild of John M. Smith, 37, a former UCLA telecommunications professor who founded Grass-Roots, and several friends.

It really was conceived as a

SMALL AND JEALOUS

DEAR ABBY: Busts schmust. What's with all those "bust" letters? As a girlwatcher, and fairly representative of my New York brethren, big busts are nice, but so are little ones. Tell those babes to get with it, and not to sweat the small stuff. The sum is greater than its parts.

spoof of soap opera, said Smith, incorporating local controversies, people and places and involving the community's 2,200 cable TV subscribers and their Aspenites by soliciting their plot suggestions. The idea also was to garner more financial support for the fledgling Grass-Roots Network.

"The secret is getting support, money," said Smith, though he indicated it hasn't been found so far. "We've tried everything," he said.

FHA Housing Across Ohio Investigated By Nader Group

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—What's wrong with Federal Housing Administration programs in Ohio and what might be done about them are the subject of an upcoming report by the Ohio Public Interest Action Group.

The OPIAG, formed last year under the guidance of consumer crusader Ralph Nader, will issue the report in the fall. It will contain results from a three-month study by two Ohio law students who spent the summer working for the group.

Under special scrutiny in the which the administration helps study was the FHA's "235 subsidized housing program" in which the administration helps meet the cost of home mortgage payments.

"I think we've identified problems in the inspection and appraisal areas," Martin Baach, a University of Cincinnati law student, said. "We've raised some questions about procedure."

He and co-worker Phil McClelland, a Case Western Reserve University student, are reluctant to preview their forthcoming report, saying, "It's too tempting to answer in a facile way. The answers are really much more complex."

Although the study did not include every FHA assistance program in Ohio, it covered problems throughout the state, ranging from Cleveland to Cincinnati, Baach said.

Some of the report recommendations are directed at the FHA, while others are aimed at local community officials and private citizens.

"For a long time the FHA had no responsibility under the law" for inspecting construction sites or practices, Baach said. "But the orientation is different now."

"I'm sure you've seen these statements by Secretary (of Housing and Urban Development) George Romney. It's a consumer oriented approach they're professing now." Shoddy workmanship, despite FHA inspection, was a complaint found by the two investigators in many places.

Examples included a Columbus home in which the ceiling and the kitchen floor have collapsed and the plumbing leaks, and a project in Delhi Township west of Cincinnati of new homes perched 35 feet from a steep, unfenced slope.

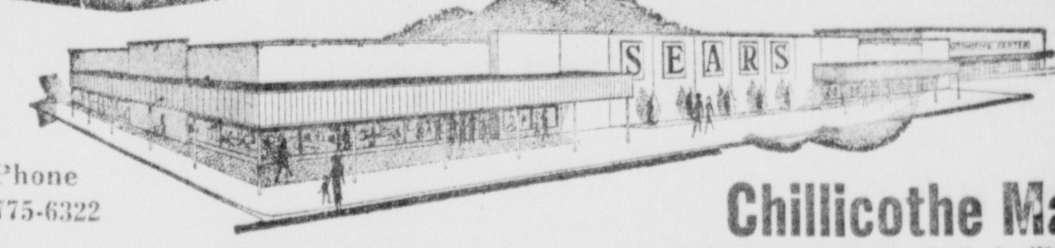

In the Delhi project, the OPIAG found, water pipes in several homes froze last winter and sparks flew from an electric outlet because of the use of less expensive aluminum wiring instead of copper.

Officials of North Madison, near Cleveland, tried to get action from the Cleveland area

FHA office when many residents complained of shoddy construction in 235 homes, the FHA response "buck-passing" Baach said one resident termed it.

Candlelight Wedding Ceremony Unites Rose Carol Brevard, Paul Johnson

MRS. PAUL R. JOHNSON

A candlelight wedding on August 19 in the Campus Church of Christ in Christian Union united Miss Rose Carol Brevard and Mr. Paul Robert Johnson.

The officiating minister was Dr. Kenneth Kinghorn, Asbury Theological Seminary, Wilmore, Kentucky, assisted by the pastor, the Rev. David Van Hoose. Communion was administered to the couple by the Rev. George Blackstone, academic dean of the Circleville Bible College.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Lewis Brevard, Oak Park. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Lamanna, Syracuse, New York.

Guests were greeted at the church by Miss Barbara Suttles, Bremen, and Miss Debbie Lambert, Millwood, W. Va., who distributed programs of the wedding service. Mr. Roger Short, brother-in-law of the bride, designed the covers using a white and blue pattern of wedding symbols. Miss Bonnie Peters, Ashville, presided at the register. The brother of the bride, Jonathan Brevard, and a cousin, Timothy Tacy, lit the candles before the mothers were seated.

Dr. Wayne Reno, Cincinnati, presented the nuptial organ music, accompanied by Mrs. Glen Smith, violinist, who played "Indian Love Call", "To a Wild Rose", and "Saviour, Like a Shepherd Lead Us".

Miss Pamela Baber, Owingsville, Ky., sang a medley of lyrics, accompanied by guitarist, Mr. Barry Weiss, Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. During communion and prayer she sang "Let Us Break Bread Together" and "The Lord's Prayer". The groom climaxed the pronouncement of marriage by the rendition of his own composition entitled, "We Will Serve the Lord."

The bride approached the altar on the arm of her father. Her silk organza gown featured a lace bodice and long pointed sleeves of Chantilly lace over which was a full lace train. The tiered silk illusion veil fell from organza petals, trimmed with pearls and lace. She carried a white Bible and bouquet of rose buds and daisies.

Mrs. Roger Short, Maryville,

Tenn., served as matron of honor for her sister, Miss LaDonna Brevard was the maid of honor. Other bridesmaids were Miss JoAnne Lamanna, Syracuse; Miss Twana Moats, Circleville; and Miss Vicki Fraunfelder, Circleville. Rachel Falk, Lancaster, whose lavender gown was identical to that worn by the matron of honor, was the flower girl. All wore long-sleeved gowns of checkered gingham with white dotted Swiss pinafores and white hats.

The best man was Mr. Robert McCone, Long Beach, Calif. Ushers were Roger Short, Maryville, Tenn.; Steven Patton, Akron, Mich.; James Thornton, Ellenburg, N. Y.; and Larry McCormick, Rochester, N. Y. A grandson of Rev. Blackstone, Nathan Cole carried the rings.

A girls' ensemble entertained the reception guests at Pickaway Arms. Mr. Kester McCain and Mr. Larry Wright accompanied Misses Twana Moats, Barbara McCain, Bonnie McCain, and Patty Maxwell as they serenaded the newly-weds and paid tribute to the parents. Miss Nancy Steele and Miss Carolyn Steele handed out scrolls listing old wedding traditions.

The bridal table was decorated with daisies, candles, and a tablecloth crocheted by Miss Ethel Rae Eye. The four-tier wedding cake was cut by Miss Eye and Mrs. Robert Tacy, aunt of the bride. Miss Sharon Runyon, Chesterland, Miss Ginny Grandison, Knightstown, Ind.; and Miss Susan Dunkin, Marion, served at the punch bowls.

Mrs. Johnson, a graduate of Logan Elm High School, is a junior at Asbury College, majoring in Christian Education. Mr. Johnson received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Eastern Nazarene College, Quincy, Mass., and has completed three years' training at Asbury Theological Seminary. Currently, in addition to his studies, Mr. Johnson is assistant pastor of the First United Methodist Church in Richmond, Ky.

When the couple left for a honeymoon at Niagara Falls and Lake Placid in the Adirondacks, Mrs. Johnson was wearing navy and white ensemble and the corsage from her bridal bouquet.

Out-of-state guests who attended the wedding were from California, Kansas, Michigan, Indiana, Pennsylvania, New York, West Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee, and Georgia.

Pickaway Senior Center Conducts All Day Meeting

Members and friends of Pickaway Senior Center held an all day social meeting Thursday in the Trinity Lutheran Parish House. Morning activities included playing euchre, pinocle, Chinese checkers, bingo, sewing and visiting.

At noon everyone enjoyed a buffet dinner with those having birthdays during the month of August sitting at a special table. Those present for the birthday song were: Fannie Brooks, Louise Heine, Mildred Allison, Ellen DeLong, Ruth Waple and Corilla Pontius. Others having August birthdays were: Freda J. Kerns, Elizabeth Morris, Blanche D. Kerns, Elizabeth Bachman, Elsie Chester, Darrell Hatfield, Rev. Carl Wetherell, Lena Jacobs and Lavina Runyon. Special dinner guests were members of the Chillicothe Kitchen Band.

John Miranda, president, conducted the business meeting. Louise Heine of the tour committee announced that the King's Island trip had been canceled for Sept. 14 since the resort is closed on that date. The trip to Akron has been substituted and reservations are still being taken for it.

Half price tickets were available for the State Fair and reservations were accepted for the bus to the Fair on September 2. Several seats are still available.

Fred Howell announced that the card party Tuesday night was a financial success. The next card party will be September 26th, again at the L-K Restaurant.

Members were extended an invitation to tour the Harford Renick gardens on August 30th. Those wishing to go should meet at the Center by 1:30 p.m.

Interested members were also invited to a luncheon at the L-K Restaurant on September 15th, sponsored by the Committee on Aging. Special speaker for the event will be Ralph Green, Economic and Housing consultant. The subject will be "Building Retirement And Nursing Homes." Anyone wishing to go should make a reservation with the Senior Center at 474-4916 by Sept. 12th.

The entertainment for the afternoon was furnished by the Chillicothe Senior Center Kitchen Band, consisting of nine ladies and five gentlemen, wearing attractive red and gray outfits, — the men with straw hats with red and gray bands. Their "instruments" included a copper coffee pot, a small bowl with a bird chirping from the top, a nut grinder, wash board, a funnel, spoons and other equally imaginative items. To the tunes played by a very snappy pianist and directed by a peppy director, they sang and played their way into the hearts of everyone present. Several readings and solos gave variety to the program, and the director and one of the gentlemen did a very cute dance to the tune of "Put Your Arms Around Me Honey, Hold Me Tight." The audience was included in some of the numbers and the program was concluded when all joined in singing, "God Bless America."

After the meeting was over, some of the members went to the Pickaway Historical Museum where Miss Dheel Renick and Mrs. William Radcliff gave them a personally conducted tour of the building.

Birth Control Operation Has Dangers, Medic Says

By FRANK CAREY
AP Medical Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A Syracuse, N.Y., doctor reported today that new evidence suggests men who undergo birth-control vasectomy operations not only risk permanent sterility but increase the chances of getting medical ailments such as multiple sclerosis and arthritis.

But Dr. John Bernard Henry cautioned his findings were still inconclusive and said he hoped his report "will not bring vasectomies to a screeching halt."

The vasectomy operation is the simple, widely-used technique in which surgeons close off the two tiny ducts that carry the male spermatozoa. Since the spermatozoa can no longer escape, the result is male sterility. However, new operations opening up the ducts have proved successful in restoring fertility in about 25 per cent of the cases.

Dr. Henry, director of Clinical Pathology at the Upstate Medical Center, State University of New York, said, however, new evidence suggests that vasectomy might cause permanent sterility—with or without the second operation.

He said the findings also suggest that men who undergo vasectomies might be in danger of:

—Enhanced vulnerability to developing such ailments as multiple sclerosis, rheumatoid arthritis, or thrombophlebitis—blood clots in the veins of the legs—a year or two after the operation.

—Having special trouble with the rejection of foreign tissue problem if they undergo subsequent kidney transplants or other organ transplants.

Dr. Henry told the 25th annual meeting of the American Association of Blood Banks he had found suspicious, potentially cell-destroying "antibodies" in the blood serum of nine of 12 men who had had vasectomies more than a year ago.

He said this raised the possibility that many men who undergo the operation may become destructively allergic to their own sperm and may suffer from more widespread immunological defects that could lead to diseases like multiple sclerosis.

And, although stressing that his concern was based on the results of only nine tests and a still-unproved hypothesis, Henry said even the preliminary studies "challenge the presumed innocuousness of elective vasectomy."

Mrs. Donahey Plans Fight Against Move To Building

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A spokesman for the Ohio Building Authority says the state legislature will have to decide whether the treasurer's office remains in the Statehouse beyond 1974.

The situation developed Monday when Treasurer Gertrude Donahey reported she would fight any step to move her to the new State Office Building, now under construction and scheduled for completion in 1974.

In 1969, the House-Senate Legislative Office Building Committee recommended to the OBA that all Statehouse operations, except those of the governor, lieutenant governor and legislature, be shifted to the new building.

However, Mrs. Donahey says, "I intend to resist by any means available to me the relinquishing of any no-cost space now occupied by the treasurer's office in Capitol Building."

OBA Chairman Lawrence Ramey said Mrs. Donahey in a letter asked for a hearing with the authorities to explain her objections.

OBA Director George Busche says rental fees in the new building will run about $8 a square foot and the treasurer's office has been allocated 30,000 square feet and new vaults on the ninth and tenth floors already are about 50 per cent complete.

Another agency can be moved into the space reserved for the treasurer at the legislature's discretion, Busche said.

Mrs. Donahey contends the legislature enacted no law requiring the move, but Busche feels the building committee instructions have the force of law as a "direct order from the legislature."

Busche said he was unaware of Mrs. Donahey's objection and had heard of no protests from others who are scheduled to move from the Statehouse.

Other offices scheduled to be moved include those of Secretary of State Ted Brown and Auditor Joseph Ferguson.

Plans for the new building also allot space to Atty. Gen. William Brown and the Ohio Supreme Court. Both are now in the Statehouse Annex, which is to be torn down when those offices are moved.

Birth Control Operation Has Dangers, Medic Says

of:
—Enhanced vulnerability to developing such ailments as multiple sclerosis, rheumatoid arthritis, or thrombophlebitis—blood clots in the veins of the legs—a year or two after the operation.

—Having special trouble with the rejection of foreign tissue problem if they undergo subsequent kidney transplants or other organ transplants.

Dr. Henry told the 25th annual meeting of the American Association of Blood Banks he had found suspicious, potentially cell-destroying "antibodies" in the blood serum of nine of 12 men who had had vasectomies more than a year ago.

He said this raised the possibility that many men who undergo the operation may become destructively allergic to their own sperm and may suffer from more widespread immunological defects that could lead to diseases like multiple sclerosis.

And, although stressing that his concern was based on the results of only nine tests and a still-unproved hypothesis, Henry said even the preliminary studies "challenge the presumed innocuousness of elective va-sectomy."

Mrs. Donahey Plans Fight Against Move To Building

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A spokesman for the Ohio Building Authority says the state legislature will have to decide whether the treasurer's office remains in the Statehouse be-beyond 1974.

The situation developed Monday when Treasurer Gertrude Donahey reported she would fight any step to move her to the new State Office Building, now under construction and scheduled for completion in 1974.

In 1969, the House-Senate
Legislative Office Building Committee recommended to the OBA that all Statehouse operations, except those of the governor, lieutenant governor and legislature, be shifted to the new building.

However, Mrs. Donahey says,
"I intend to resist by any means available to me the relinquishing of any no-cost space now occupied by the treasurer's office in Capitol Building."

OBA Chairman Lawrence Ramsey said Mrs. Donahey in a letter asked for a hearing with the authorities to explain her objections.

OBA Director George Busche says rental fees in the new building will run about $8 a square foot and the treasurer's office has been allocated 30,000 square feet and new vaults on the ninth and tenth floors already are about 50 per cent complete.
Another agency can be moved into the space reserved for the treasurer at the legislature's discretion, Busche said.

Mrs. Donahey contends the legislature enacted no law requiring the move, but Busche feels the building committee instructions have the force of law as a "direct order from the legislature."

Busche said he was unaware of Mrs. Donahey's objection and had heard of no protests from others who are scheduled to move from the Statehouse.

Other offices scheduled to be moved include those of Secretary of State Ted Brown and Auditor Joseph Ferguson.

Plans for the new building also allot space to Atty. Gen.
William Brown and the Ohio
Supreme Court. Both are now in the Statehouse Annex, which is to be torn down when those offices are moved.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. John J. Gilligan's cousin, Michael Joyce, is operating a concession at the Ohio State Fair that could bring in over $8,000 during the fair's 12-day run.

Fair Manager Victor Lucas, however, predicted Joyce's return from catering meals at a restaurant on the fairgrounds and the fair personnel dining

Columbus Policeman Gunned Down

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Columbus police continued their search today for a man who shot a black Columbus policeman to death and wounded his partner.

The two men were answering an emergency call.

Police so far have no suspects.

Patrolman Joseph Edwards, 28, died about a half hour after being shot in the head at close range with a shotgun. His partner, Charles McFadden was treated at a local hospital for pellet wounds in his arm and shock, then released.

Edwards was the first black Columbus policeman to be killed in the line of duty.

Police said McFadden saw a man run past the cruiser and an instant later heard a "popping sound" apparently the shotgun blasts. The gun was fired twice.

The cruiser was going slowly at the time as the patrolman checked house numbers.

McFadden grabbed the wheel as Edwards slumped over.

Detectives and patrolmen searched the area for about two hours after the shooting, but found no sign of the suspect.

Police said the emergency call was authentic. A 77-year-old man at the residence where the men were heading had collapsed and died of an apparent heart attack.

Seek Funds To Fight White Collar Crime

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — State Commerce Director Dennis Shaul said the state is seeking funds for a demonstration project aimed at combatting white collar crime in Ohio.

Shaul said the project involves a neighborhood law enforcement office in Cincinnati's Avondale section, which will have a primary purpose of identifying persons guilty of such crimes as consumer fraud, illegal credit practices and violation of administrative regulations.

Butchers OK Kroger Pact

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Higher meat prices in central Ohio could be in the offing, following announcement of a new labor contract Monday between 450 butchers and the Kroger Co.

Members of the Meat Cutters and Butchers Workers Local 346 ratified a two-year contract over the weekend and has future negotiations scheduled with other grocery chains in the area, including A&P, Ontario, Albers and Super Duper.

Kroger spokesman Harold Templeton said meat prices probably will go up, but the grocery chain will have to stay competitive and to do that his company may have to make less profit on its meat.

However, if the union negotiates wage hikes with the other chains, Kroger could raise its prices to regain profits absorbed by contract benefits, Templeton said.

The Kroger contract included a $1.50 hourly pay increase over the next 18 months if the federal Pay Board restrictions are dropped during that time. If they remain, the meat cutters will get the standard 5.5 per cent increase, Templeton said.

Soochow Retains Image As Oriental Venice

By HORST FAAS
Associated Press Writer

SOOCHOW, China (AP) — When President Nixon visited the resort town of Hangchow last February he quoted a Chinese proverb: "In heaven there is paradise, on earth Soochow and Hangchow."

Despite the trend toward industrialization, the people of Soochow make every effort to uphold the tradition that their town is one of the most pleasant in China.

As in Venice, canals crisscross the city where streets ordinarily might be. The small houses, almost all whitewashed, have small landings for boats at the backdoors. Willow trees hang lazily over canals, reflecting in the black water.

The streets are clean and green — during the Great Leap Forward in the late '50s the Soochow government decided to plant trees everywhere. Some streets today are almost like green tunnels.

Hundreds of bridges cross the canals. Some of the old ones are so vaulted that a cyclist has to push his bike across.

The canals are used as they were 750 years ago, when the city was about the same size. On large canal boats from a commune deliver a mountain of watermelons to the city market. In a narrow backyard canal a boat collects garbage.

Silk made Soochow famous, starting in the Sun Dynasty almost a thousand years ago. Marco Polo, who visited here, wrote: "The people have silk in great quantities, they make cloth of gold and silk for their clothing."

Silk remains one of Soochow's main industries, and silkworms are now raised in communes in the suburbs. All silk production and that of a silk embroidery factory are now for export.

The other ancient tradition of this pretty city is the gardens, once the personal property of retired mandarins and gentlemen of leisure. During the Ming Dynasty 500 years ago, it became the custom for rich officials who had retired from a political life in the capital to buy a plot of land in Soochow and landscape garden — of tea, whimsical creation of pavilions, artificial hills, lotus ponds, odd stones, animals, bamboo groves and miniature trees.

Gambled away or sold, the pleasure gardens changed owners as often as homes at the French Riviera.

There were 15 major gardens. Five have been restored and opened to the public. In these summer months thousands visit them each day — especially the silk workers on days off. Old men and retired workers gossip in the pavilion tea-houses.

But industrialization has made dents in the quaint picture of Soochow. There are more and taller chimneys than the town's seven pagodas. Factories have been placed along the old Imperial Grand Canal, built more than 1,000 years ago to connect Nanking and Soochow. Men and women still pull junks upstream with long ropes, walking with bent backs along the canal banks. Often they are passed by diesel-powered tugboats that transport raw materials or industrial goods for the new factories.

Nolan, Reds Turn Back N.Y. Mets, 5-2

By BILL WINTER

Associated Press Sports Writer

CINCINNATI (AP) — Gary Nolan got only two-thirds of the way through his private tunnel Monday night, but said he could see the light at the end. And it shines on post-season playoffs.

Nolan, Cincinnati's ace right-hander who had been bothered by a shoulder and neck ailment, allowed only one hit in six innings in taking his first victory since July 13, a 5-2 decision over the New York Mets.

His performance was perfect except for a single by Dave Marshall with two outs in the fifth inning, and brought a smile to Nolan's round face.

"I felt real good," he said, "I had good control and the curve ball was breaking well."

On Marshall, he said, "I was trying to go up and away from him, and he punched it into right. But I felt good and I'm real happy about that."

The victory brought Nolan's record to 14-3 and resolved doubts he had about his role with the Reds, who now lead the National League's Western Division by 8 1/2 games.

"I'm not concerned about winning 20 games," he said, "I just want to get sharp and be part of the playoffs. I don't care about being a big name. If we win the pennant, it'll be two of my six years in the playoffs or series, and that's getting a piece of the action, so to speak."

"That's what I want," Cincinnati Maager Sparky Aderson said he had planned to yank Nolan after five innings to avoid the risk of aggravating the shoulder and neck injury that has kept the Reds mainstay on the bench since Aug. 2.

"But he had such an easy time," said Aderson. "I decided to let him go six."

Aderson said he'd still have yanked Nolan then, no-hitter or not.

"He's more important to use than a no-hitter," Aderson said.

Nolan, pitching effortlessly with a live fast ball and impressive curve, had mowed down the first 14 Mets he faced before Marshall's single. He eventually retired 18 of the 19 men he faced.

Tom Hall, a slender left-hander, came on to work the final three innings, giving up both Mets runs on four hits.

Catcher Duffy Dyer scored the first New York run in the eighth after reaching base when Hall hit him on the left foot with an errant curve and then taking second on pinch-hitter Jim Fregosi's single to center.

Bud Harrelson bounced a double off Denis Menke's glove at third, scoring Dyer. John Milner slammed a Hall delivery over the right field fence in the ninth for the Mets final run.

Brent Strom, making his third start since his call-up from Tidewater a month ago, gave up all five Reds runs and dropped to 0-2.

Strom's problems began in the sixth when a pair of bad pitches left him four runs down.

George Foster, pinchhitting for Nolan, rapped a one-out double to right. Then Pete Rose walked and Strom tried to slip a curve past Joe Morgan.

"It hung," Strom said later. Morgan slashed it into right center, scoring Foster.

Then Bobby Tolan ripped a high and tight fast ball over the rightfield bleachers for a 4-0 Cincinnati lead.

Menke's homer in the seventh ended Reds scoring.

Visibly shaken in the Mets clubhouse, Strom recalled two bad pitches.

"I thought I had good control," he said. "But control means putting the ball where you want it as well as not walking someone. I just made a couple of bad pitches."

"He's just a young boy," said Mets Manager Yogi Berra. "We think he is going to be okay. He's going to get a chance again."

Anderson was elated over Nolan's return to early season form and admitted, "I didn't think he would be that sharp. I'd have to say," Anderson added, "I feel very good about this."

Licher And Keiser Tied For Lead In Ohio Open

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—Chuck Licher once cleaned clubs for Herman Keiser. Now he's trying to beat the 1946 Masters champion for the Ohio Open golf title.

"I was his rack boy at Lima Lost Creek in 1951 when I was 13. I really admired him," said Licher, an unheralded club pro at Greene Country Club near Xenia.

Licher, who never has finished higher than eighth in the Ohio Open, identically matched Keiser's opening four-under-par 68 laced with five birdies and one bogey.

However, Licher downgraded his chances going into the second round today over the 6,675-yard Candywood Golf Club course.

"I'm not that good a player. I just happened to have a good round," said the balding bespectacled Licher. The 57-year-old Keiser, although he's won the Ohio Open twice besides the Masters, was wary of Bob Wynn of Kitering, the defending champion, who was tied for fourth at 70 behind third place Dick Schwartz '69.

"Wynn ought to shoot 276 the way he can reach these par fives," Keiser predicted. "He played bad and still shot 70 today."

Wynn was upset after blowing a chance to take the lead, bogeying the last three holes.

"I just rolled over and played dead on those last three," said Wynn, who has won $7,000 on the PGA tour.

"I'm playing absolutely terrible."

Licher's caution paid dividends. He used an iron off the tee four times on driving holes.

"I just kept it in play and didn't get greedy on putts on these fast greens," he explained.

His birdies came on four, five, nine, ten and 14 and his longest putt was a 10-footer.

His lone bogey on the seventh hole was the result of a bad chip shot.

Keiser, a Copley driving range pro, switched to a mallet type putter before the round and took only 26 strokes on the greens. "I should have shot about 60 the way I putted," he said.

Bengals Overcome Philadelphia Eagles, 34 - 20

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Coach Paul Brown believes his Cincinnati Bengals have arrived as a solid National Football League team, not one that makes the headlines every so often by upsetting an established team.

Brown's five-year-old Bengals rallied in the second half Tuesday to overcome the Philadelphia Eagles 34-20 in an exhibition game. Cincinnati trailed 17-10 at halftime, but scored three touchdowns and a field goal as the injury-riddled Eagles' defense came apart.

"This is our fifth year," said Brown, "and our plans were by this time to play every team right to the ground and not sneak in the back door and upset some established team. I think we are able to do that now."

Brown's Bengals, who were last in the NFL's Central Division last season with a 4-10 record, now are 2-2 in the pre-season schedule. Philadelphia is 1-3.

"To win on the road is great for our young players," Brown said of Cincinnati's second-half rally while holding the Eagles to three points.

"Our defense looked like it was getting into focus," he said. "It was reading the plays correctly and making the plays defensively."

Brown was particularly pleased with the performance of Ken Anderson, the sophomore quarterback from Augustana (Ill.) College, who completed 12 of 17 passes for 155 yards and led the Bengals' second half comeback.

"Some people thought we were taking a chance on him (Anderson) since he played for little Augustana," Brown said. "And we were, but he is coming along fine. He is taking control on the field and we had a balanced offense. We took him out in the third quarter because he got a chest injury and it was bothering him."

Veteran quarterback Pete Liske passed 24 yards to Gary Ballman to put Philadelphia on the scoreboard first. After Cincinnati's Horst Muhlman kicked an 11-yard field goal, Liske slammed over from the one to cap an 80-yard drive. Al Beauchamp scored for the Bengals on a 7-yard pass interception and Dempsey ended first-half scoring with a 30-yard field goal.

Running back Paul Robinson scored twice for the Bengals in the second half and Muhlman and Dempsey exchanged field goals, Philadelphia's coming on a 52-yarder.

"It was the worst defense I've seen since the Cincinnati game last year," Eagle coach Ed Khayat said after the game. "We didn't execute and we didn't tackle well."

In addition to his praise of Anderson, Brown took time to note that he used a lot of players, including Dan Nova, the training camp center.

"We used him (Nova) as a way of saying thanks for the job he has done during training camp," the coach explained. "In fact, the team gave him the game ball."

Nova is from Notre Dame and was taken to camp strictly as the training camp center. He wants to be a coach himself and joined the Bengals to learn from one of the masters—Brown.

Defensive back Neil Craig picked off a Philadelphia pass and initiated an eight-play, 50-yard drive that tied the score at 17. Three plays later the Bengals recovered a fumble at the Eagles 16 and scored in five plays on Robinson's six-yard burst.

Virgil Carter relieved Anderson and engineered a 58-yard drive for another Cincinnati TD, ending with Robinson's 3-yard run. Muhlman followed with an 11 yard field goal.

The only points of the second half for the Eagles were on a 52-yard field goal by Dempsey.

The Eagles could have made excuses. Five regular defensive team players didn't even dress for the game because of injuries. But Khayat declined to alibi.

White Sox Trip Boston, Win 6-4

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN

Associated Press Sports Writer

Chicago's Mike Andrews bedeviled the Boston Red Sox Monday night while Oakland's Angel Mangual lived up to his name and kept the A's on the heels of the White Sox in baseball's American League West.

Andrews drove in five runs with a home run and double to pace the White Sox to a 6-4 victory over Boston. They remained one-half game in front of Oakland when the A's rallied for five runs in the seventh inning, three on pinch hitter Mangual's tie-breaking homer, and edged Cleveland 5-4.

In the only other AL contest, Baltimore's Jim Palmer blanked Minnesota 2-0 on five hits, pulling the Orioles to within one game of idle Detroit in the East Division.

There were only three games in the National League. Cincinnati downed the New York Mets 5-2. Pittsburgh shaded San Diego 5-3 and St. Louis defeated San Francisco 4-2.

Andrews hit his seventh home run of the season in the fourth inning following Dick Allen's double and a hit batsman after Boston starter Sonny Siebert had mowed down the first 11 Chicago batters. Andrews doubled two more runs across in the sixth and pinch runner Luis Alvarado then scored on a single by Rich Morales.

Boston bounced back with three runs in the bottom of the sixth on Andy Kosco's solo homer and Carl Yastrzemski's two-run single but the White Sox hung on.

Cleveland's Roy Foster hit a two-run homer off Oakland's Vida Blue and Steve Dunning held the A's to one hit for six innings before the roof fell in.

Newly acquired Matty Alou led off the big seventh with a single. Reggie Jackson walked and the runners advanced on Mike Epstein's ground out.

After an intentional walk to Sal Rando filled the bases, Ted Kubiak's sacrifice fly delivered one run and Gene Tenace's game-tying single chased Dunning. Mangual then slammed an 8-2 pitch from Mike Kilekeny far over the left field fence, giving Oakland just enough runs to withstand a two-run homer by Graig Nettles in the ninth.

Baltimore's Palmer got the only run he needed when Don Baylor homered in the fifth inning off Dick Woodson. Boog Powell singled across an insurance tally in the eighth as Palmer breezed to his 18th triumph and stretched Minnesota's scoreless string to 24 innings.

The Twins just finished dropped a three-game series to Detroit and manager Frank Quilici called the East Division dogfight a tossup.

"Baltimore has some great players who haven't been hitting," he said. "They're liable to bounce back any time and start them off on a winning streak. They seldom make any mistakes and they have great pitching."

"Detroit, on the other hand, is starting to get great hitting. Also, Willie Horton is back in form after coming off the injury list and Al Kaline is just coming back strong."

Cincinnati's Gary Nolan, making his first start in 26 days after suffering from muscle irritation in his neck and shoulder, limited the Mets to one hit in the six innings he worked and picked up his first victory since July 13.

George Foster batted for Nolan in the sixth and doubled to ignite a four-run inning that broke up a scoreless duel against rookie Brent Strom. Pete Rose walked, Joe Morgan singled the first run across and Bobby Tolan homered. Cincy's Dennis Menke and New York's John Milner hit solo homers later.

Willie Stargell walloned a pair of two-run homers to spark Pittsburgh past San Diego. The Padres made it close with back-to-back solo homers by Leron Lee and Nate Colbert in the ninth.

Rookie Don Durham hulled his first complete game as the Cardinals beat the Giants and sent struggling Juan Marichal to his 15th loss in 20 decisions. Lou Brock feed off on Marichal for a leadoff homer in the first inning and Luis Melendez ripped a two-run double.

Cleveland Browns Skipper Shuffles Remaining Talent

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Cleveland Browns Coach Nick Skorich says defensive right end Joe "Turkey" Jones will be moved back to the left side where he played last season.

The Browns skipper also announced Monday that Ron Sni-dow would be moved from the left side into Jones' former spot and that starting offensive left guard John Demarie would be getting some work at right tackle.

The Browns skipper said Demarie would be working out at the right tackle spot because of the fractured right leg received Saturday by starter Bob McKay. The injury left the Browns with just two rookie tackles as replacements, Chris Morris, a free agent from Indiana, and Don Wesley, a 7th round draft choice from Maryland-Eastern Shores.

McKay is expected to be out at least six weeks. Skorich said Morris would probably move into the starting role, but that the possibility exists that Demarie would be shifted into the spot.

In that eventuality, Skorich said, center Jim Copeland would be returned to guard --a position he played until last season --and Fred Hoaglin would reclaim the center spot Copeland took away from him last season.

Skorich's Browns are winless in four National Football League exhibition contests and take on the Cincinnati Bengals Sunday at Ohio State University in Columbus.

After reviewing the films of the latest defeat --the 20-17 setback at the hands of the Minnesota Vikings Saturday, Skorich had high praise for second-year linebacker Charlie Hill from the University of Houston.

"He continues to show constant improvement and is a solid tackler," said Skorich. "He's got a good shot at moving into a starting role on the right side."

"I felt real good," he said. "I had good control and the curve ball was breaking well."

On Marshall, he said, "I was trying to go up and away from him, and he punched it into right. But I felt good and I'm real happy about that."

The victory brought Nolan's record to 14-3 and resolved doubts he had about his role with the Reds, who now lead the National League's Western Division by 8 1/2 games.

"I'm not concerned about winning 20 games," he said. "I just want to get sharp and be part of the play-offs. I don't care about being a big name. If we win the pennant, it'll be two of my six years in the play-offs or series, and that's getting a piece of the action, so to speak."

"That's what I want."

Cincinnati Maager Sparky Anderson said he had planned to yank Nolan after five innings to avoid the risk of aggravating the shoulder and neck injury that has kept the Reds mainstay on the bench since Aug. 2.

"But he had such an easy time," said Anderson. "I decided to let him go six."

Anderson said he'd still have yanked Nolan then, no-hitter or not.

"He's more important to use than a no-hitter," Anderson said.

Nolan, pitching effortlessly with a live fast ball and impressive curve, had mowed down the first 14 Mets he faced before Marshall's single. He eventually retired 18 of the 19 men he faced.

Tom Hall, a slender left-hander, came on to work the final three innings, giving up both Mets runs on four hits.

Catcher Duffy Dyer scored the first New York run in the eighth after reaching base when Hall hit him on the left foot with an errant curve and then taking second on pinch-hitter Jim Fregosi's single to center.

Bud Harrelson bounced a double off Denis Menke's glove at third, scoring Dyer. John Milner slammed a Hall delivery over the right field fence in the ninth for the Mets final run.

Brent Strom, making his third start since his call-up from Tidewater a month ago, gave up all five Reds runs and dropped to 0-2.

Strom's problems began in the sixth when a pair of bad pitches left him four runs down.

George Foster, pinchhitting for Nolan, rapped a one-out double to right. Then Pete Rose walked and Strom tried to slip a curve past Joe Morgan.

"It hung," Strom said later. Morgan slashed it into right center, scoring Foster.

Then Bobby Tolan ripped a high and tight fast ball over the rightfield bleachers for a 4-0 Cincinnati lead.

Menke's homer in the seventh ended Reds scoring.

Visibly shaken in the Mets clubhouse, Strom recalled two bad pitches.

"I thought I had good control," he said. "But control means putting the ball where you want it as well as not walking someone. I just made a couple of bad pitches."

"He's just a young boy," said Mets manager Yogi Berra. "We think he is going to be okay. Hes going to get a chance again."

Anderson was elated over Nolan's return to early season form and admitted, "I didn't think he would be that sharp. I'd have to say," Anderson added, "I feel very good about this."

Licher And Keiser Tied For Lead In Ohio Open

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—Chuck Licher once cleaned clubs for Herman Keiser. Now he's trying to beat the 1946 Masters champion for the Ohio Open golf title.

"I was his rack boy at Lima Lost Creek in 1951 when I was 13. I really admired him," said Licher, an unheralded club pro at Greene Country Club near Xenia.

Licher, who never has finished higher than eighth in the Ohio Open, identically matched Keiser's opening four-under-par 68 laced with five birdies and one bogey.

However, Licher downgraded his chances going into the second round today over the 6,675-yard Candywood Golf Club course.

"I'm not that good a player. I just happened to have a good round," said the balding bespectacled Licher. The 57-year-old Keiser, although he's won the Ohio Open twice besides the Masters, was wary of Bob Wynn of Kittering, the defending champion, who was tied for fourth at 70 behind third place Dick Schwartz' 69.

"Wynn ought to shoot 276 the way he can reach these par fives," Keiser predicted. "He played bad and still shot 70 today."

Wynn was upset after blowing a chance to take the lead, bogeying the last three holes.

"I just rolled over and played dead on those last three," said Wynn, who has won $7,000 on the PGA tour.

"I'm playing absolutely terrible."

Licher's caution paid dividends. He used an iron off the tee four times on driving holes. "I just kept it in play and didn't get greedy on putts on these fast greens," he explained.

His birdies came on four, five, nine, ten and 14 and his longest putt was a 10-footer. His lone bogey on the seventh hole was the result of a bad chip shot.

Keiser, a Copley driving range pro, switched to a mallet type putter before the round and took only 26 strokes on the greens. "I should have shot about 60 the way I putted," he said.

Bengals Overcome Philadelphia Eagles, 34 - 20

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Coach Paul Brown believes his Cincinnati Bengals have arrived as a solid National Football League team, not one that makes the headlines every so often by upsetting an established team.

Brown's five-year-old Bengals rallied in the second half Tuesday to overcome the Philadelphia Eagles 34-20 in an exhibition game. Cincinnati trailed 17-10 at halftime, but scored three touchdowns and a field goal as the injury-riddled Eagles' defense came apart.

"This is our fifth year," said Brown, "and our plans were by this time to play every team right to the ground and not sneak in the back door and upset some established team. I think we are able to do that now."

Brown's Bengals, who were last in the NFL's Central Division last season with a 4-10 record, now are 2-2 in the pre-season schedule. Philadelphia is 1-3.

"To win on the road is great for our young players," Brown said of Cincinnati's second-half rally while holding the Eagles to three points.

"Our defense looked like it was getting into focus," he said. "It was reading the plays correctly and making the plays defensively."

Brown was particularly pleased with the performance of Ken Anderson, the sophomore quarterback from Augustana (Ill.) College, who completed 12 of 17 passes for 155 yards and led the Bengals' second-half comeback.

"Some people thought we were taking a chance on him (Anderson) since he played for little Augustana," Brown said. "And we were, but he is coming along fine. He is taking control on the field and we had a balanced offense. We took him out in the third quarter because he got a chest injury and it was bothering him."

Veteran quarterback Pete Liske passed 24 yards to Gary Ballman to put Philadelphia on the scoreboard first. After Cincinnati's Horst Muhlmann kicked an 11-yard field goal, Liske slammed over from the one to can an 80-yard drive. Al Brunchamp scored for the Bengals on a 7-yard pass interception and Dempsey ended first-half scoring with a 30-yard field goal.

Running back Paul Robinson scored twice for the Bengals in the second half and Muhlmann and Dempsey exchanged field goals. Philadelphia's coming on a 52-yarder.

"It was the worst defense I've seen since the Cincinnati game last year," Eagle coach Ed Khayat said after the game. "We didn't execute and we didn't tackle well."

In addition to his praise of Anderson, Brown took time to note that he used a lot of players, including Dan Nova, the training camp center. "We used him (Nova) as a way of saying thanks for the job he has done during training camp," the coach explained. "In fact, the team gave him the game ball."

Nova is from Notre Dame and was taken to camp strictly as the training camp center. He wants to be a coach himself and joined the Bengals to learn from one of the masters—Brown.

Defensive back Neil Craig picked off a Philadelphia pass and initiated an eight-play, 50-yard drive that tied the score at 17. Three plays later the Bengals recovered a fumble at the Eagles 16 and scored in five plays on Robinson's six-yard burst.

Virgil Carter relieved Anderson and engineered a 58-yard TD for another Cincinnati drive, ending with Robinson's 3-yard run. Muhlmann followed with an 11-yard field goal.

The only points of the second half for the Eagles were on a 52-yard field goal by Dempsey.

The Eagles could have made excuses. Five regular defensive team players didn't even dress for the game because of injuries. But Khayat declined to alibi.

White Sox Trip Boston, Win 6-4

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN

Associated Press Sports Writer
Chicago's Mike Andrews bedeviled the Boston Red Sox Monday night while Oakland's Angel Mangual lived up to his name and kept the A's on the heels of the White Sox in baseball's American League West.

Andrews drove in five runs with a home run and double to pace the White Sox to a 6-4 victory over Boston. They remained one-half game in front of Oakland when the A's rallied for five runs in the seventh inning, three on pinch hitter Mangual's tie-breaking homer, and edged Cleveland 5-4.

In the only other AL contest, Baltimore's Jim Palmer blanked Minnesota 2-0 on five hits, punting the Orioles to with in one game of idle Detroit in the East Division.

There were only three games in the National League. Cincinnati downed the New York Mets 5-2. Pittsburgh shaded San Diego 5-3 and St. Louis defeated San Francisco 4-2.

Andrews hit his seventh home run of the season in the fourth inning following Dick Allen's double and a hit batsman after Boston starter Sonny Siebert had mowed down the first 11 Chicago batters. Andrews doubled two more runs across in the sixth and pinch runner Luis Alvarado then scored on a single by Rich Morales.

Boston bounced back with three runs in the bottom of the sixth on Andy Kosco's solo homer and Carl Yastrzemski's two-run single but the White Sox hung on.

Cleveland's Roy Foster hit a two-run homer off Oakland's Vida Blue and Steve Dunning held the A's to one hit for six innings before the roof fell in.

Newly acquired Matty Alou led off the big seventh with a single. Reggie Jackson walked and the runners advanced on Mike Epstein's ground out.

After an intentional walk to Sal Bando filled the bases, Ted Kubiak's sacrifice fly delivered one run and Gene Tenace's game-tying single chased Dunning. Mangual then slammed an 0-2 pitch from Mike Kilekenny far over the left field fence, giving Oakland just enough runs to withstand a two-run homer by Graig Nettles in the ninth.

Baltimore's Palmer got the only run he needed when Don Baylor homered in the fifth inning off Dick Woodson. Boog Powell singled across an insurance tally in the eighth as Palmer breezed to his 18th triumph and stretched Minnesota's scoreless string to 24 innings.

The Twins just finished dropped a three-game series to Detroit and manager Frank Quilici called the East Division dogfight a tossup.

"Baltimore has some great players who haven't been hitting," he said. "They're liable to bounce back any time and start them off on a winning streak. They seldom make any mistakes and they have great pitching."

"Detroit, on the other hand, is starting to get great hitting. Also, Willie Horton is back in form after coming off the injury list and Al Kaline is just coming back strong."

Cincinnati's Gary Nolan, making his first start in 26 days after suffering from muscle irritation in his neck and shoulder, limited the Mets to one hit in the six innings he worked and picked up his first victory since July 13.

George Foster batted for Nolan in the sixth and doubled to ignite a four-run inning that broke up a scoreless duel against rookie Brent Strom.

Pete Rose walked, Joe Morgan singled the first run across and Bobby Tolan homered. Cincy's Dennis Menke and New York's John Milner hit solo homers later.

Willie Stargell walloned a pair of two-run homers to spark Pittsburgh past San Diego. The Padres made it close with back-to-back solo homers by Leron Lee and Nate Colbert in the ninth.

Rookie Don Durham hurled his first complete game as the Cardinals beat the Giants and sent struggling Juan Marichal to his 15th loss in 20 decisions.

Lou Brock teed off on Marichal for a leadoff homer in the first inning and Luis Melendez ripped a two-run double

Cleveland Browns Skipper Shuffles Remaining Talent

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Cleveland Browns Coach Nick Skorich says defensive right end Joe "Turkey" Jones will be moved back to the left side where he played last season.

The Browns skipper also announced Monday that Ron Sni-dow would be moved from the left side into Jones' former spot and that starting offensive left guard John Demarie would be getting some work at right tackle.

Skorich said he shifted Jones back to the left side because he didn't "believe the Browns were getting the advantage they hoped for (more pressure on the quarterback) when they made the change."

Skorich added that the coaching staff felt "Jones had been making good progress at the left side last year." Jones started last season as the starter at the left side but was replaced at mid-season by Sni-dow, Jack Gregory, who played out his option and was traded to the New York Giants, was the right side starter last season.

The Browns skipper said Demarie would be working out at the right tackle spot because of the fractured right leg received Saturday by starter Bob McKay.

The injury left the Browns with just two rookie tackles as replacements, Chris Morris, a free agent from Indiana, and Don Wesley, a 7th round draft choice from Maryland-Eastern Shore.

McKay is expected to be out at least six weeks. Skorich said Morris would probably move into the starting role, but that the possibility exists that Demarie would be shifted into the spot.

In that eventuality, Skorich said, center Jim Copeland would be returned to guard — a position he played until last season — and Fred Hoaglin would reclaim the center spot Copeland took away from him last season.

Skorich's Browns are winless in four National Football League exhibition contests and take on the Cincinnati Bengals Sunday at Ohio State University in Columbus.

After reviewing the films of the latest defeat — the 20-17 setback at the hands of the Minnesota Vikings Saturday, Skorich had high praise for second-year linebacker Charlie Hill from the University of Houston.

"He continues to show constant improvement and is a solid tackler," said Skorich. "He's got a good shot at moving into a starting role on the right side."

Arkansas 'Hogs' Favored In Southwest Conference

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
DALLAS (AP) — Arkansas, based on the wondrous works of gifted quarterback Joe Ferguson, is the odds-on favorite to dethrone Texas in its bid for a fifth consecutive Southwest Conference title this fall.

Aside from Arkansas' solid position as the preseason favorite, the 58th campaign should be interesting, indeed, with four new coaches at the helm and a big question mark on new Texas quarterback Alan Lowry.

Should Lowry, previously an excellent defensive back, make magic at the controls of Texas' once awesome Wishbone-T attack things could become interesting in a hurry.

The four new coaches are Grant Teaff at Baylor, Al Con-

over at Rice, Emory Bellard at Texas A&M and Billy Tohill at Texas Christian.

Ferguson completed over 60 per cent of his passes in 1971 before he suffered a shoulder injury. Coach Frank Broyles says without hesitation: "There isn't a better passer in the country."

His prime target is Mike Reppond, who caught 56 passes for 986 yards in 1971.

Ferguson can also run and think. Should the defense drop back to bat down his bullets, he'll spring loose such ground-gobbling runners as Dickey Morton and Jon Richardson.

The Razorbacks are solid, defensively. Louis Campbell anchors a quick and hard-tackling secondary while linebackers Danny Rhodes and Scott Binion can unsnap a halfback's chin strap with their jarring tackles.

Lowry, a senior, is a talented athlete but Longhorn Coach Darrell Royal admits "I don't know if we have enough time for him to get adjusted to the position. For the first time since 1968, we've come up without a seasoned quarterback."

Injuries caused Texas valuable lost time in the spring.

"To really get greased and oiled you have to work the same folks in the same positions all the time," says Royal.

Should Arkansas or Texas stumble, look out for the Texas Aggies, Southern Methodist, Texas Christian and Texas Tech—all with unproven quarterbacks plus several quality players.

Bellard handled the Wishbone-T operations at Texas and when he arrived at Aggie land he found the cupboard far from bare. Such thunder runners as Mark Green, Brad Dusek and John Bounds were on campus. A tremendous recruiting campaign netted such outside speed burners as Carl Roaches and Bubba Bean.

Lex James and Don Dean could jell at quarterback. If so, look out for the Aggies.

SMU has gone back to its prostyle offense, and should redshirt quarterback Casey Ortez catch fire to team with explosive running back Alvin Maxson. The Mustangs could be troublesome. SMU should be improved on defense inspired by the play of safety Robert Popelka, a second teamer on The Associated Press All-America squad in 1971.

Quarterbacks Kent Marshall and Terry Drennan are the keys to TCU's offensive hopes. TCU has a young team and as Tohill puts it: "We have some good young prospects. They only need actual battle experience."

Texas Tech Coach Jim Carlen was undecided going into fall training between quarterbacks Joe Barnes, Jimm Carmichael and Jerry Reynolds for the No. 1 post.

Rice and Baylor both will field scrappy teams but depth is a problem.

"I'm optimistic we can compete well against all," says Conover.

"We're woefully lacking in depth almost all over," says Teaff.

A lot of teams in the SWC hurry this autumn to catch the will have to play "old" in a Razorbacks.

NEW MARK FOR MARK—Mark Spitz of Carmichael, Calif., waves after setting a new Olympic record in the 20-

Local Karate Members Win At Laurelville

Circleville's Karate club, directed by Doyle Wiggins, had four Karate enthusiasts walk off with six trophies in the Laurelville Invitational Karate Tournament held Saturday evening.

Byron Sykes took home trophies in the green belt free style fighting championship and kata competition.

Rob Gans won first place in the green belt kata competition. Dennis Sparks won a third place trophy in kata competition of the brown belt division and Joe Bahr won first place trophy in free style competition along with a kata trophy in the pee wee white belt division.

Team continued its winning ways.

Spitz can make it three in a row tonight with a victory in the 200-meter freestyle final. The women, meanwhile, still seeking to get out of the wake of Australian sensation Shane Gould, will be out to gain a gold in the 200-meter breaststroke.

Highlights In World Of Sports

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Ike Kelley, a middle linebacker for the Philadelphia Eagles, injured his left knee on the opening kickoff of a 34-20 National Football League exhibition game loss Monday night to the Cincinnati Bengals and will be sidelined 10 to 12 weeks.

An Eagle spokesman said Kelley, 28, was taken to Graduate Hospital, where surgery was to be performed late Monday or early Tuesday.

NEW YORK (AP) — Walter Seeley, outslugged Jose Fernandez to gain a 12-round majority decision at Madison Square Garden Monday night, but new combat started after the decision was announced.

The 127-pound Seeley fought toe-to-toe with Fernandez, 128, but appeared to be losing the fight. The Associated Press scored the match 8-3-1 in the Dominican's favor, and a number of writers at ringside thought Fernandez the winner.

Filly Sets Hambletonian Challenge

DU QUOIN, Ill. (AP) — In these days of women's lib, there is a strong such candidate in the horse set.

Delmonica Hanover—a filly—will be going against the colts for the first time this year in the $119,000 Hambletonian Wednesday. Most experts peg the daughter of Speedy County the main challenger of Super Bowl, winner of 12 of 16 starts and $324,677.

Super Bowl, driven by Stanley Dancer, has covered the mile in 2:00 or less seven times this season with a best of 1:58 3-5 and is rated an unofficial 1-2 choice in the betless classic for 3-year-old trotters.

In fact, his domination was so great, that although this year there was a len crop of outstanding trotters, he scared off enough of them so only seven make up the smallest Hambletonian field since 1932.

In addition to Delmonica Hanover, the others are Spartan Hanover, driven by Billy Houghton; Star's Chip, Ronnie Dancer, Stanley's son; Flush, Glen Garney; The Black Streak, Howard Bessinger; and the rank outsider, Axystar, owned, trained and driven by Dr. Anderson Arbury, 67, a retired orthodontist from Midland, Mich.

Axystar finished no better than fourth and won $137 this year while campaigning at county fairs in Michigan.

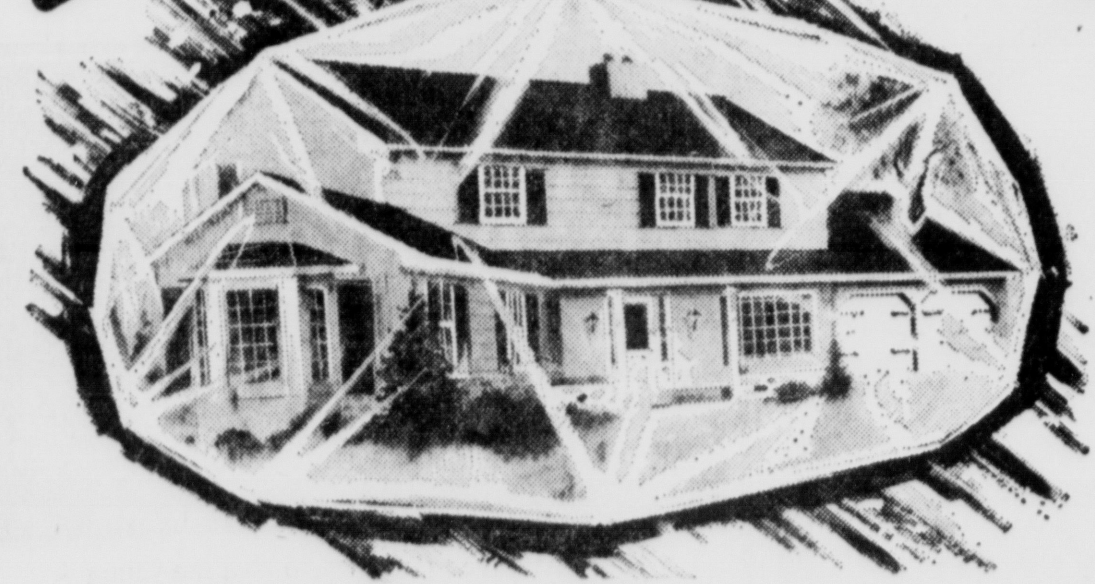

Freshmen Gridders Receive Equipment

Football equipment will be issued to all freshmen grid candidates 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at the junior high school.

Anyone desiring to participate on the freshmen team must attend. A team meeting will follow the issuing of equipment.

Bill Deatherage of Wayne, Pa., has been elected captain of West Point's 1973 swimming team.

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
DALLAS (AP) — Arkansas, based on the wondrous works of gifted quarterback Joe Ferguson, is the odds-on favorite to derail Texas in its bid for a fifth consecutive Southwest Conference title this fall.

Aside from Arkansas' solid position as the preseason favorite, the 58th campaign should be interesting, indeed, with four new coaches at the helm and a big question mark on new Texas quarterback Alan Lowry. Should Lowry, previously an excellent defensive back, make magic at the controls of Texas' once awesome Wishbone-T attack things could become interesting in a hurry.

The four new coaches are Grant Teaff at Baylor, Al Con-

over at Rice, Emory Bellard at Texas A&M and Billy Tohill at Texas Christian.

Ferguson completed over 60 per cent of his passes in 1971 before he suffered a shoulder injury. Coach Frank Broyles says without hesitation: "There isn't a better passer in the country."

His prime target is Mike Reppond, who caught 56 passes for 985 yards in 1971.

Ferguson can also run and think. Should the defense drop back to bat down his bullets, he'll spring loose such ground-gobbling runners as Dickey Morton and Jon Richardson.

The Razorbacks are solid, defensively. Louis Campbell anchors a quick and hard-tackling secondary while linebackers Danny Rhodes and Scott Binnion can unsnap a halfback's chin strap with their jarring tackles.

Lowry, a senior, is a talented athlete but Longhorn Coach Darrell Royal admits "I don't know if we have enough time for him to get adjusted to the position. For the first time since 1968, we've come up without a seasoned quarterback."

Injuries caused Texas valuable lost time in the spring.

"To really get greased and oiled you have to work the same folks in the same positions all the time," says Royal.

Should Arkansas or Texas stumble, look out for the Texas Aggies, Southern Methodist, Texas Christian and Texas Tech—all with unproven quarterbacks plus several quality players.

Bellard handled the Wishbone-T operations at Texas and when he arrived at Aggie land he found the cupboard far from bare. Such thunder runners as Mark Green, Brad Dusek and John Bounds were on campus. A tremendous recruiting campaign netted such outside speed burners as Carl Roaches and Bubba Bean.

Lex James and Don Dean could jell at quarterback. If so, look out for the Aggies.

SMU has gone back to its prostyle offense, and should redshirt quarterback Casey Ortez catch fire to team with explosive running back Alvin Maxson, the Mustangs could be troublesome. SMU should be improved on defense inspired by the play of safety Robert Popelka, a second teamer on The Associated Press All-America squad in 1971.

Quarterbacks Kent Marshall and Terry Drennan are the keys to TCU's offensive hopes. TCU has a young team and as Tohill puts it: "We have some good young prospects. They only need actual battle experience."

Texas Tech Coach Jim Carlen was undecided going into fall training between quarterbacks Joe Barnes, Jimm Carmichael and Jerry Reynolds for the No. 1 post.

Rice and Baylor both will field scrappy teams but depth is a problem.

"I'm optimistic we can compete well against all," says Conover.

"We're woefully lacking in depth almost all over," says Teaff.

A lot of teams in the SWC hurry this autumn to catch the will have to play "old" in a Razorbacks.

Highlights In World Of Sports

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Ike Kelley, a middle linebacker for the Philadelphia Eagles, injured his left knee on the opening kickoff of a 34-20 National Football League exhibition game loss Monday night to the Cincinnati Bengals and will be sidelined 10 to 12 weeks.

An Eagle spokesman said Kelley, 28, was taken to Graduate Hospital, where surgery was to be performed late Monday or early Tuesday.

NEW YORK (AP) — Walter Seeley, outslugged Jose Fernandez to gain a 12-round majority decision at Madison Square Garden Monday night, but new combat started after the decision was announced.

The 127-pound Seeley fought to a tie with Fernandez, 128, but appeared to be losing the fight. The Associated Press scored the match 8-3-1 in the Dominican's favor, and a number of writers at ringside thought Fernandez the winner.

Filly Sets Hambletonian Challenge

DU QUOIN, Ill. (AP) — In these days of women's lib, there is a strong candidate in the horse set.

Delmonica Hanover—a filly—will be going against the colts for the first time this year in the $119,090 Hambletonian Wednesday. Most experts peg the daughter of Speedy County the main challenger of Super Bowl, winner of 12 of 16 starts and $324,677.

Super Bowl, driven by Stanley Dancer, has covered the mile in 2:00 or less seven times this season with a best of 1:58 3-5 and is rated an unofficial 1-2 choice in the betless classic for 3-year-old trotters.

In fact, his domination was so great, that although this year there was a len crop of outstanding trotters, he scared off enough of them so only seven make up the smallest Hambletonian field since 1932.

In addition to Delmonica Hanover, the others are Spartan Hanover, driven by Billy Houghton; Star's Chip, Ronnie Dancer, Stanley's son; Flush, Glen Garnsey; The Black Streak, Howard Bessinger; and the rank outsider, Axystar, owned, trained and driven by Dr. Anderson Arbury, 67, a retired orthodontist from Midland, Mich.

Axystar finished no better than fourth and won $137 this year while campaigning at county fairs in Michigan.

Freshmen Gridders Receive Equipment

Football equipment will be issued to all freshmen grid candidates 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at the junior high school.

Anyone desiring to participate on the freshmen team must attend. A team meeting will follow the issuing of equipment.

Bill Deatherage of Wayne, Pa., has been elected captain of West Point's 1973 swimming team.

Giants Study in Contrast

By BRUCE LOWITT
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Giants are a study in contrast as the National Football League season nears. They've got one of the deeper pass-receiving corps but less-than-superior passers. They've got one of the stronger linebacks and secondary defensive units—but one that has to be because of a line that could be as porous as a sieve.

And they've got one of the better running backs in the business, without too much to back him up.

The pass-catchers are, at wide receiver, Don Hartmann, Rich Houston and Bob Grim and, at tight end, Bob Tucker.

But Grim, who had his best year last season, became a holdout and signed only last week.

That, according to the Giants, cost him what would have been almost a guaranteed starting spot.

Grim came from the Minnesota Vikings along with quarterback Norm Snead in the trade that sent quarterback Fran Tarkenton back to the Vikings.

Now Grim will have to beat out Houston, who caught 21 passes for 426 yards and four touchdowns last season but showed an unfortunate tendency to drop costly tosses. Hartmann, more sure-handed but with less speed than Houston, grabbed 27 passes for 297 yards and a touchdown in 1971.

Tucker became the first tight end in NFL history last season to win a pass-catching title, leading the National Conference with 59 receptions for 791 yards and four touchdowns in only his second year in the league.

Throwing the ball to them will be either Snead or Randy Johnson, neither of whom has shown he has that undefeatable quality of leadership. Snead is in his 11th pro year and Johnson in his sixth.

Johnson, the Giants' No. 2 passer last season behind Tarkenton, has been elevated to No. 1 and still holds that position despite being sidelined—possibly for the remainder of the exhibition schedule—with a collarbone separation.

Safeties Scot Eaton and Carl Lockhart and cornerbacks Pete Athas and Willie Williams anchor the New York secondary with Jim Files and Pat Hughes at outside linebacker and Ron Hornsby at middle linebacker.

The line, with a lack of depth last year that delighted opposition quarterbacks and runners, has been strengthened by the addition of Jack Gregory, obtained from Cleveland.

The Giants are counting heavily on the return to 1970 form of running back Ron Johnson, who rolled up 1,027 yards on 253 carries that year, only to be sidelined virtually the entire 1971 season by thigh and knee injuries.

Backing him up are Charlie Evans, who picked up just 171 yards on the ground in 1971, rookie Eddie Ricardson from Southern University, and Bobby Duhan who shifted between running and receiving and wound up last year as the Giants' top rusher with 344 yards.

Opening the holes for them on the line, or pulling to lead the sweeps, will be an offensive line with Bob Hyland at center, Doug Van Horn and Dick Enderle at guards and Willie Young and Joe Taffoni at tackles.

Fair Attendance Increases As Halfway Mark Reached

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The 1972 edition of the Ohio State Fair reached its halfway point today with attendance creeping up on previous years' figures. Fair officials reported Monday night that the day's attendance of 170,734 had surpassed the 1971 fifth-day mark by almost 20,000. However, the five-day figure still remains about 14,000 behind the 1971 total.

Through Monday night, overall attendance was 960,352.

In activity Monday, Trav-clogue scored an upset victory over heavily-favored Arnie Alma Hurst and Hardy Coal-town to win the $27,100 Ohio State Trot. The Brighton, Colo., bay colt extended his winning streak to six with the twin-heat triumphs.

In the companion $5,875 two-year-old filly trot, Second Call owned by the Little Six Stable of Findlay established a new stake record with a final heat victory in 2:07 to complement her first heat of 2:07 1-5.

In other activity, Paula Brown of Licking County won the championship in western horsemanship and Mike Totonetti of Geauga was selected reserve champion.

There were 400 persons competing, the second year for entries to reach that number.

Marti Heil of Cincinnati was chosen Ohio 4-H County and Independent Fair Queen from among 63 contestants. Miss Heil, 21, is the daughter of the Reverend and Mrs. David E. Heil of Fort Thomas, Ky. and is a senior at the College Conservatory of Music in Cincinnati.

Loudonville Girl, 19, Dies; Struck By Car

ASHLAND, Ohio (AP) — A 19-year-old Loudonville girl whose freshman classes at Ashland College were slated to begin later in the day was killed Monday in a traffic accident in the city.

Police said Gilligan Mapes was struck by a car as she crossed a street in the city. The driver of the car was not cited.

Control Board OKs Highway Fee Outlays

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio State Controlling Board has approved approximately $2.5 million in highway project consulting fees, but delayed action on a proposed increase in state aid programs for the aged, blind and disabled.

The proposed increases will be considered by the board one week from today. Monday's delay was the second for the board, shelved because some board members said they need more study time.

Board Chairman Robert Baker said Monday that acting Welfare Director Robert Canary was still "studying" a contention by some Republican board members that granting state aid in the three categories would remove 4,000 recipients from the programs.

Sen. Robin Turner, R-14 Marion, has said a federal Social Security hike of 20 per cent, due Oct. 1, would put that many recipients in a category where they would no longer be eligible to participate in the state programs.

Turner also has said another 25,000 participants in the state programs would receive total benefits less than the 20 per cent hike in Social Security if state benefits were increased.

The consulting fees, for 23 state highway projects, was approved unanimously after highway officials offered further explanations of their purposes.

Action on the fees also had been delayed from a meeting last week.

William McKenna, a spokesman for the Highway Department, said many of the fees were incurred because of charges in highway projects often dictated by the public.

Boyle Ahead In UMW Nominations

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
With the process nearly completed, incumbent United Mine Workers President W. A. (Tony) Boyle holds a two-to-one lead over his challenger, Arnold Miller, in the number of nominations by UMW locals.

As of Sunday, the Labor Department reported Boyle had been nominated by 830 locals, while Miller had support of 393 locals.

In order to qualify, a candidate must have the nominations of 50 local unions to appear on the December ballots in the court-ordered UMW election.

The nominating process began in early August and the deadline is Sept. 3. By Sunday only 54 of the 1,277 locals had not yet conducted nominations.

Miller, a candidate of the dissident Miners for Democracy, has nearly four times the nominations that Joseph A. Yablonski gained in his 1969 attempt to oust Boyle. That year he was nominated by only 96 locals.

Ft. Wayne Church Faces Tax Action

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP) — The Internal Revenue Service has threatened to seize assets of St. Mary's Catholic Church if the parish carries through its refusal to pay a 10 per cent telephone tax to protest the Vietnam war.

The church holds folk guitar masses every Sunday and includes several blacks, long-haired youths and poor people among its congregation.

Lawrence Williamson, president of the 22-member parish council, said the governing body voted 19 to 1 last week to withhold the tax from its monthly bill of $100 to $150.

The tax was initiated during World War II and reimposed during the Vietnam war. Legal penalty for nonpayment is one year imprisonment and a $10,000 fine.

Harold Kener, a tax supervisor for the IRS' Fort Wayne office, said if the church refuses to pay the tax and a penalty, the IRS has the authority to attach and auction assets.

"This was one specific thing we could do to protest the war," Williamson said. "All our earlier marching and vigils and letter writing were simply acts of faith."

"We know they (IRS) ultimately will collect, but our conscience wouldn't let us pay any longer...we hope they take an old school building," he added.

ATLANTA (AP) — Elwin Heminger, publisher of the Findlay, Ohio Republican Courier has been elected national president of Delta Tau Delta fraternity during the organization's national convention here.

Judge Voids Law Sections On Attachment

CINCINNATI (AP) — Acting on his own motion, a Hamilton County Municipal Court judge has ruled sections of the state attachment laws unconstitutional.

Judge Paul Gilday said Monday that the statutes deprive a person of his right to his property without a court hearing.

Attachment laws permit a person to file a complaint, freezing the defendant's possessions until a court hearing is held to determine whether he plaintiff is entitled to the property. The plaintiff may try to attach wages, savings or checking accounts, furniture or other goods.

Gilday said the statutes do nothing to protect the defendant who is automatically deprived of the use of his property.

Gilday issued the ruling in a case involving a doctor who filed a complaint to attach a patient's $113.95 bank account because he said a $150 bill had not been paid.

Gilday said the reason for his own motion and ruling was to initiate procedures in municipal court here for hearings before property can be frozen.

He said he would suggest that a hearing on whether property should be attached should be held eight days after a defendant is notified there is a complaint against him.

Richmond Firefighters Plan Suit

RICHMOND, Ind. (AP) — Volunteer city employees will be trained, starting next month, to replace 21 firemen on Richmond's 88-man force.

"I have no doubt they will be able to do the job," Mayor Byron C. Klute said.

Klute's "minutemen" plan, proposed more than a month ago after fire fighters demanded a $1,000-year pay raise, was included in the 1973 city budget approved Monday night by the city council.

Firemen have vowed to fight the action in court.

The budget also included a 3.2 per cent pay raise, about $250 a year, for the 67 remaining firemen.

Under the minutemen plan, the volunteers would be paid $700 annually.

Richmond firemen work 24 hour shifts and are on duty an average of 56 hours a week.

State and national firemen's union leaders told the council Klute's plan would hurt fire protection in the city.

Dirt Mounds Keep Students Off Grass

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Twenty towering dirt mounds covered with grass at the University of Utah were designed to keep students off the grass because most students don't want to climb hills.

In addition, says Arden Larson, university landscape architect, the grassy mounds act as visual screens to block out the view of traffic from walk-on campus system, and act as noise barriers, shielding the university from sounds of nearby parking lots.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The 1972 edition of the Ohio State Fair reached its halfway point today with attendance creeping up on previous years' figures. Fair officials reported Monday night that the day's attendance of 170,734 had surpassed the 1971 fifth-day mark by almost 20,000. However, the five-day figure still remains about 14,000 behind the 1971 total.

Through Monday night, overall attendance was 909,352.

In activity Monday, Travelogue scored an upset victory over heavily-favored Arnie Alma Hurst and Hardy Coal-town to win the $27,100 Ohio State Trot. The Brighton, Colo., bay colt extended his winning streak to six with the twin-heat triumphs.

In the companion $5,875 two-year-old filly trot, Second Call owned by the Little Six Stable of Findlay established a new stake record with a final heat victory in 2:07 to complement her first heat of 2:07 1-5.

In other activity, Paula Brown of Licking County won the championship in western horsemanship and Mike Totonetti of Geauga was selected reserve champion.

There were 400 persons competing, the second year for entries to reach that number.

Marti Heil of Cincinnati was chosen Ohio 4-H County and Independent Fair Queen from among 63 contestants. Miss Heil, 21, is the daughter of the Reverend and Mrs. David E. Heil of Fort Thomas, Ky. and is a senior at the College Conservatory of Music in Cincinnati.

Loudonville Girl, 19, Dies; Struck By Car

ASHLAND, Ohio (AP)—A 19-year-old Loudonville girl whose freshman classes at Ashland College were slated to begin later in the day was killed Monday in a traffic accident in the city.

Police said Gilligan Mapes was struck by a car as she crossed a street in the city. The driver of the car was not cited.

Control Board OKs Highway Fee Outlays

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio State Controlling Board has approved approximately $2.5 million in highway project consulting fees, but delayed action on a proposed increase in state aid programs for the aged, blind and disabled.

The proposed increases will be considered by the board one week from today. Monday's delay was the second for the board, shelved because some board members said they need more study time.

Board Chairman Robert Baker said Monday that acting Welfare Director Robert Canary was still "studying" a contention by some Republican board members that granting state aid in the three categories would remove 4,000 recipients from the programs.

Sen. Robin Turner, R-14 Marion, has said a federal Social Security hike of 20 per cent, due Oct. 1, would put that many recipients in a category where they would no longer be eligible to participate in the state programs.

Turner also has said another 25,000 participants in the state programs would receive total benefits less than the 20 per cent hike in Social Security if state benefits were increased.

The consulting fees, for 23 state highway projects, was approved unanimously after highway officials offered further explanations of their purposes.

Action on the fees also had been delayed from a meeting last week.

William McKenna, a spokesman for the Highway Department, said many of the fees were incurred because of charges in highway projects of ten dictated by the public.

Boyle Ahead In UMW Nominations

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

With the process nearly completed, incumbent United Mine Workers President W. A. (Tony) Boyle holds a two-to-one lead over his challenger, Arnold Miller, in the number of nominations by UMW locals.

As of Sunday, the Labor Department reported Boyle had been nominated by 830 locals, while Miller had support of 393 locals.

In order to qualify, a candidate must have the nominations of 50 local unions to appear on the December ballots in the court-ordered UMW election.

The nominating process began in early August and the deadline is Sept. 3. By Sunday only 54 of the 1,277 locals had not yet conducted nominations.

Miller, a candidate of the dissident Miners for Democracy, has nearly four times the nominations that Joseph A. Yablonski gained in his 1969 attempt to oust Boyle. That year he was nominated by only 96 locals.

Ft. Wayne Church Faces Tax Action

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP)—The Internal Revenue Service has threatened to seize assets of St. Mary's Catholic Church if the parish carries through its refusal to pay a 10 per cent telephone tax to protest the Vietnam war.

The church holds folk guitar masses every Sunday and includes several blacks, long-haired youths and poor people among its congregation.

Lawrence Williamson, president of the 22-member parish council, said the governing body voted 19 to 1 last week to withhold the tax from its monthly bill of $100 to $150.

The tax was initiated during World War II and reimposed during the Vietnam war. Legal penalty for nonpayment is one year imprisonment and a $10,000 fine.

Harold Kener, a tax supervisor for the IRS' Fort Wayne office, said if the church refuses to pay the tax and a penalty, the IRS has the authority to attach and auction assets.

"This was one specific thing we could do to protest the war," Williamson said. "All our earlier marching and vigils and letter writing were simply acts of faith."

"We know they (IRS) ultimately will collect, but our conscience wouldn't let us pay any longer...we hope they take an old school building," he added.

Judge Voids Law Sections On Attachment

CINCINNATI (AP)—Acting on his own motion, a Hamilton County Municipal Court judge has ruled sections of the state attachment laws unconstitutional.

Judge Paul Gilday said Monday that the statutes deprive a person of his right to his property without a court hearing.

Attachment laws permit a person to file a complaint, freezing the defendant's possessions until a court hearing is held to determine whether the plaintiff is entitled to the property. The plaintiff may try to attach wages, savings or checking accounts, furniture or other goods.

Gilday said the statutes do nothing to protect the defendant who is automatically deprived of the use of his property.

Gilday issued the ruling in a case involving a doctor who filed a complaint to attach a patient's $113.95 bank account because he said a $150 bill had not been paid.

Gilday said the reason for his own motion and ruling was to initiate procedures in municipal court here for hearings before property can be frozen.

He said he would suggest that a hearing on whether property should be attached should be held eight days after a defendant is notified there is a complaint against him.

Richmond Firefighters Plan Suit

RICHMOND, Ind. (AP)—Volunteer city employees will be trained, starting next month, to replace 21 firemen on Richmond's 88-man force.

"I have no doubt they will be able to do the job," Mayor Byron C. Klute said.

Klute's "minutemen" plan, proposed more than a month ago after fire fighters demanded a $1,000-year pay raise, was included in the 1973 city budget approved Monday night by the city council.

Firemen have vowed to fight the action in court.

The budget also included a 3.2 per cent pay raise, about $250 a year, for the 67 remaining firemen.

Under the minutemen plan, the volunteers would be paid $700 annually.

Richmond firemen work 24 hour shifts and are on duty an average of 56 hours a week.

State and national firemen union leaders told the council Klute's plan would hurt fire protection in the city.

Dirt Mounds Keep Students Off Grass

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Twenty towering dirt mounds covered with grass at the University of Utah were designed to keep students off the grass because most students don't want to climb hills.

In addition, says Arden Larson, university landscape architect, the grassy mounds act as visual screens to block out the view of traffic from walk-on campus system, and act as noise barriers, shielding the university from sounds of nearby parking lots.
